The War Cry
The All Round the World
The Salvation Army
The Army Chariot Pulls It
Registered June 1885
An Official Gazette Of The Salvation Army, Canada.

Vol. VI. No. 273. TORONTO, CANADA, JANUARY 18TH, 1890. Price 5 Cents.

MRS. BOOTH BLESSES THE ARMY THROUGH ITS STAFF COUNCIL'S DEPUTATION.

With Mrs. Booth.

Messages of Faith and Love from the "Death Chamber."

BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

CLACTON-ON-SEA,
SATURDAY NIGHT.

A sad mission has devolved upon me. I am summoned to record the last moments of Mrs. Booth. A feeling of awe seizes me as I approach the little seaside town of Clacton. The night is still. The scanty reflection of the starlight rests upon the heaving bosom of the sea, and dimly reveals to me the isolation of the spot where God's servant has come to die. The house itself is detached, and the leafless trees that surround it add to the loneliness of the scene, helping to saddon my thoughts as I think of the poor suffering saint, and watch the flitting to and fro of lights and forms, hurrying hither and thither on errands of mercy to alleviate her sufferings and to scatter "acts of kindness and of love" along the path of her homeward journey.

I turn from that silent house of death and look on the deep full ocean that, heaving and swelling at my feet, stretches away in the darkness of the distance. Into that darkness my limited vision cannot pierce. I must wait for the morning to show me the beyond!

The purposes and mercy of God are like that sea to me to-night, broad, deep, and far-reaching, and by the light that this poor finite mind gives me I am not able to see how the present connects itself with the future.

It looks all darkness out at sea in the night of mystery and pain—the eternal morning must dawn before I can see all the glory and the light of the shores beyond; and so, leaving the mystery of this "sickness unto death" to the boundless mercy of God, I bend my steps homeward and await the course of events, expecting before morning to be called, for I hear Mrs. Booth is hourly becoming weaker, and that the end cannot be far off. Hemorrhage, accompanied by violent coughing, has set in, and she is suffering great anguish.

* * *

I met the Chief and Mrs. Bramwell, Commissioner Railton, and Staff-Capt. Simpson by the last train. They will stay in the town for some days. All the family is now here except the Marechale and Marshal Ballington and his wife. The Commandant arrived by an earlier train, and at once went to Ocsanville.

The Chief looks very poorly and anxious, and every inmate of the house seems overstrained and intensely sad. The ceaseless attention and watching have told terribly on Mrs. Booth-Tucker and her two sisters, the Field Commissioner and Miss Lucy; and the worn expression written in every feature of Mrs. Booth's faithful nurse, Capt. Carr, tell their own tale of incessant watching. I am able to say that the unwearying devotion of this noble woman to their suffering mother throughout the past two years has written its own record upon every heart in the family.

Sunday Morning, Eight o'Clock.—A hasty message reaches me to go at once to Mrs.

[CONTINUED ON PAGE 4.]

Sinners' Column.

By Commissioner

Sinner, hear this. "The Saviour read in Nazareth, from a roll of the prophet Isaiah, a text which, if it could be heard in the barracks, would make the pulses of the Hallelujah Band beat through the midst of warships and invincibles.

All the music in society is in heaven; there's none in hell.

In eternity we never shall sin, we never sinned. Only one note from the Royal Harpers, and one peal of music from the sweet angels, will repay us for all the mockings and sufferings on earth.

What is the Bible? Why it is God's invitation to every poor sin-burdened soul, contains comfort for the broken-hearted, and balm for the wounded spirit. Sinner, seek! find out the glorious things laid out for you.

Sinner, remember the key-note of God's word is "Come."

What the Scripture forbids, avoid. What it allows, believe. What it commands, do. What it reproves, amend.

What will you give in exchange for your soul? Think of this. Be careful and weigh this matter up candidly.

Perhaps you are not afraid of death, but the judgment? Oh! how will you appear? Shall you, amidst a ghastly throng, be dragged to the tribunal of God, dazed to see?

Sinner, there are three great enemies you must overcome—the world, the flesh, and the devil. There has been ample provision made in the plan of redemption. Jesus is mighty! God's grace is sufficient for you.

By grace are you saved, through faith.

If you don't wish for Him kingdom don't pray for it. But if you want it, you must pay the price.

If you were dying now, where would you go? Jesus is the important question with me, and I want you to be interested in it.

Get plenty of Jesus, then you will have plenty of joy, peace, and happiness, and who soever the troubled heart. "Ho Ho" who makes this merry billows in your soul cause their raging, and can say "Peace, be still." Hallelujah!

The joy from Jesus can be fully enjoyed down here on earth.

Why? Such a blessing to know He has a balm for every wound! He has felt what you and I might have yet. Have you ever sought and got sympathy that Jesus may have had for you. Jesus knows all and feels for you. Think!

Prayers and tears are the weapons that all the devils of hell can not withstand or injure with. These are the weapons that can calm a guilty soul.

When do you intend making your way to the Cross of Calvary? Are you the blood-washed of Jesus. His hands, His heart, His feet? That blood flows for you. Come beneath its waves.

Oh! What a cross to have no cross. The cross is easier to him who bears it, than him who drags it.

Christ's cross is the sweetest burden that I ever bore. Bless Him. His yoke is easy, His burden light.

The cross is a wonderful help to me, and it will be to you, if you will take it up. It sends me sweeping along like the wind of a bird, or the sail of a ship. It carries me on to God.

Where are you looking for God, sinner? You can never hope to find Him anywhere else than at the cross. Then you can find Him who is able to deliver and adopt you into the family of Himself.

Oh, hallelujah! The Lord's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, neither is His ear heavy that it cannot hear.

Reader, the world says, "Come to me and I will fail you." The flesh says, "Come to me and I will destroy you." Christ says, "Come to me and I will give you rest."

Sinner, you know how long will it take a man to go to Jesus and be saved? Just as long as it takes him to believe on Jesus and accept Jesus. Instantly.

The Gun and the Sword.

BY FRIENDLY

The "Gun" and the "Sword" are two weapons different in their nature, but equally effective in killing sinners. Both are useful. The "Gun" is for firing shots when at a distance from the sinner, and the "Sword" is to be used in a hand-to-hand conflict. I don't mean by cutting and thrusting, but by running down the other fellow, and saying, "Surrender!"

Neither can sinners be conquered by the "Gun" or the "Sword" alone. The Gun does it sometimes when it hits the sinner's heart, but I think it is generally when it hits the Sword. The Sword will be powerless without God to wield it, and God will not wield it in hell. In earthly wars there are several distinct kinds of warfare. For instance, if trouble surrounds you, you may run away, or you may stand and fight. If you run away, you are a coward. If you stand and fight, you are a hero. The soldier's cry is, "Quick march! Fire! Take the bayonet! Charge!" Now the enemy's lines are broken, the work begins, bringing the bayonet into close contact with the enemy. The Sword is employed.

Since my arrival in Canada, I have observed a class of people who are in a great hurry, and yet they are in a great rut. They are in a great rut, but they are in a great hurry. The sword brought into operation, they are not prepared for action, the platform and have a very hideous face. Possibly during the Crimean war some sailors got into a tight place, and never knew what fear was, and never knew what scared. Any way to escape, they saw the lines were broken, and they had to use the sword. They had out by a personal hand-to-hand fight, whose they are and what they are fighting for. Now, I don't mean to be such a way as to make such individuals feel uncomfortable. Speaking and writing to you, I feel as if I am in the ranks with you. Well, you would the gun, and I the sword. Well, I am a sinner, and I am a sinner, and I am a sinner, and Booth's bedside. Staff-Capt. Fry, who had already summoned the Chief and the Commandant, announces that Mrs. Booth had been seized with violent coughing, and shows other symptoms of serious danger. The presence of pain, however, happily did not last long, for by the time Commissioner Railton and I had reached the house, she had rallied and was calm again.

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.)

"But the alarm had been the occasion for a scene not to be easily forgotten. It was the first gathering of loving hearts to watch the struggle with death. It was the meeting of father, sons, and daughters for the sifting of death's river by prayer, and faith, and song. In the stillness of the gloomy chamber, the broken voice of the Commander was just discernible, pleading for the promised presence of the Great Comforter, as of the eight sons and daughters stood or knelt with anxious gaze fixed upon the features that already seemed to have caught the first reflection of a brighter light and a more powerful day. Then the thin worn hand is raised—the hand that has blessed so many a heavy charge from the platform, and we hide its form to see far-reaching an advantage, and through the waiting ear of the General, we are all conscious of a prayer, and while tears rise, with heart to speak unutterable things to a loving Father, voice is blended with voice in the song, slow, and sweet, and tremulous—

"Victory for me,
Through the blood of Christ, my Saviour."

But the color is mounting again to the pale features, the pulse quickens, and the crisis is past.

"I returned a little later to find Mrs. Booth surrounded by her children, in the conversation with Staff-Capt. Fry, who has been with the General everywhere lately, and is soldiering with the Army from Switzerland, hurrying to the bedside of our dear leader. He was very tired, having just come out of prison. He had spent some sleepless nights on the boards of the hotel, up in the police station, and in a cell of the Prefecture, and yesterday he had journeyed to Paris. In reply to our enquiries, he gave some stirring news of the meetings, of Gipsy Smith, and of what they have been having in Geneva in the midst of the persecution, and how our comrades there stand to stand to their guns.

"While the Colonel is taking off his coat, Staff-Capt. Fry tells me how much he was impressed with Mrs. Booth's conversation with others: "She often asks me," he said, "if I have all I want, and tells me how sorry she is she cannot do more for my comfort. She always likes me to say something to her when I come into the room on the General's business."

"'How did you leave the Marechale, Colonel?'

"'Quite unfit to travel, and very anxious. She longs to be here. I am charged with messages to you from her and from your mother. We all feel her great sufferings very intensely.'

Dec. 2nd, 7 a.m.—"I shall never forget this night," said the Field Commissioner, as I met her on the landing outside Mrs. Booth's door. "Mamma has not left the moment all night. Hemorrhage has set in four times, and she has been perfectly unconscious all the time. It is such a night!—such a night!"

"She had no time to tell me more. Mrs. Booth was needing her, and the dear calls. I overheard the General ask some question about the hemorrhage. The doctor was not able to conclude the General in taking a hopeful view of Mrs. Booth's life' Hours were passed, and in these moments of hemorrhage, there was cause for the greatest fear. I was astonished to see the Staff-Captain's cheerfulness and fortitude of the dear General while listening to these sad words.

"If Mrs. Booth was able just to go into Mrs. Booth's room, at her request. She is very weak. So prostrated! She took my hand not was silently pressed it each other, the my eyes suffused with tears, and in smothered sobs I tried to tell her how much I owed to her.

"'You must follow out in your life every word you speak in conviction.' she said. '—you do so sorry to be poor, I know, for my own, but for your sakes; but I shall be near you yet, if God will, I shall be near.'

"Her room is darkened, and the simplest possible furniture relieves its spare appearance. I'd like to describe the painting the verse, "I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine!" stands against the wall before her bed, and the only ornament, with the one important exception of the Army flag. It surmounts her bed, he folds sometimes touching with the red, yellow and blue the dear, suffering form of her whose life is well nigh spent in the struggle to uplift it.

"The absence of earthly brilliance is not, however, noticeable. In fact, any such manifestation would be but poor tinsel in a sanctuary where the Divine Presence is so our by realised.

Some of her sayings, in these last moments, are very striking and touching. Mrs. Booth-Tucker, her constant nurse, companion, and more than ever her daughter in the hour of supreme suffering, I note on my table, and I hope to give the readers of War Cry her words.

"'Mamma, I'm so sorry for you, and our dear mother's dying words. "Well," she said, "there are so many. I remember Mrs. Webster. We were talking of her." Then she rambled, and suddenly claimed, 'Oh, the poor, poor people! You see, they are like Job and David, they expect prosperity in this world, and they don't understand.'

"'I have had some delicious—for mamma was delirious—dreams since Friday night.—You see the beginning of my life was much the same as theirs, striving and struggling to know, to know God's way in dealing with the people.'

"'Then, again, 'It's not the machinery, but the spirit.' Oh, how foolish they are—the machinery is the engine.'

"'I'm so thankful for the improvability of our man-nature and her desire to encourage everybody, comes out even in her delirious moments. That was always such a strong trait in her character.

"'I remember her saying, referring to some one she must have seen, 'Poor dear, I used to have caught the first reflection of a brighter light and a more powerful day. Then the thin worn hand is raised—the hand that has blessed so many a heavy charge from the platform, and we hide its form to see far-reaching an advantage, and through the waiting ear of the General, we are all conscious of a prayer, and while tears rise, with heart to speak unutterable things to a loving Father, voice is blended with voice in the song, slow, and sweet, and tremulous—

"Victory for me,
Through the blood of Christ, my Saviour."

But the color is mounting again to the pale features, the pulse quickens, and the crisis is past.

"I returned a little later to find Mrs. Booth surrounded by her children, in the conversation with Staff-Capt. Fry, who has been with the General everywhere lately, and is soldiering with the Army from Switzerland, hurrying to the bedside of our dear leader. He was very tired, having just come out of prison. He had spent some sleepless nights on the boards of the hotel, up in the police station, and in a cell of the Prefecture, and yesterday he had journeyed to Paris. In reply to our enquiries, he gave some stirring news of the meetings, of Gipsy Smith, and of what they have been having in Geneva in the midst of the persecution, and how our comrades there stand to stand to their guns.

"While the Colonel is taking off his coat, Staff-Captain Fry tells me how much he was impressed with Mrs. Booth's conversation with others: "She often asks me," he said, "if I have all I want, and tells me how sorry she is she cannot do more for my comfort. She always likes me to say something to her when I come into the room on the General's business."

"'How did you leave the Marechale, Colonel?'

"'Quite unfit to travel, and very anxious. She longs to be here. I am charged with messages to you from her and from your mother. We all feel her great sufferings very intensely.'

Dec. 2nd, 7 a.m.—"I shall never forget this night," said the Field Commissioner, as I met her on the landing outside Mrs. Booth's door. "Mamma has not left the moment all night. Hemorrhage has set in four times, and she has been perfectly unconscious all the time. It is such a night!—such a night!"

"She had no time to tell me more. Mrs. Booth was needing her, and the dear calls. I overheard the General ask some question about the hemorrhage. The doctor was not able to conclude the General in taking a hopeful view of Mrs. Booth's life' Hours were passed, and in these moments of hemorrhage, there was cause for the greatest fear. I was astonished to see the Staff-Captain's cheerfulness and fortitude of the dear General while listening to these sad words.

"If Mrs. Booth was able just to go into Mrs. Booth's room, at her request. She is very weak. So prostrated! She took my hand not was silently pressed it each other, the my eyes suffused with tears, and in smothered sobs I tried to tell her how much I owed to her.

"'You must follow out in your life every word you speak in conviction.' she said. '—you do so sorry to be poor, I know, for my own, but for your sakes; but I shall be near you yet, if God will, I shall be near.'

"Her room is darkened, and the simplest possible furniture relieves its spare appearance. I'd like to describe the painting the verse, "I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine!" stands against the wall before her bed, and the only ornament, with the one important exception of the Army flag. It surmounts her bed, he folds sometimes touching with the red, yellow and blue the dear, suffering form of her whose life is well nigh spent in the struggle to uplift it.

"The absence of earthly brilliance is not, however, noticeable. In fact, any such manifestation would be but poor tinsel in a sanctuary where the Divine Presence is so our by realised.

Some of her sayings, in these last moments, are very striking and touching. Mrs. Booth-Tucker, her constant nurse, companion, and more than ever her daughter in the hour of supreme suffering, I note on my table, and I hope to give the readers of War Cry the Victorious!

BY B. J. O.

"They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever."—Dan. xii. 3.

Tired and weary with the conflict,
Bruised, and wounded the might of souls,
To their cottage walked the lasses
Through the night air, bleak and cold.

All seemed dark, for in their coffers
There was not much earthly store,
And the friends whom they could trust in,
Though so willing, were but poor.

In the barracks few had gathered
To hear the words of Gospel truth,
They showed careless and indifferent
To the words of love they spoke.

Some of those who once had promised
To their colors to be true
To-day had yielded to the tempter,
Obeyed when he had said, "This do."

Therefore, they, in condemnation
Sat all through the meeting long,
Never spoke for the that Jesus
Who had bid them to Him come.

And although the lasses labored,
Prayed, and talked, and sang, and wept,
Though some did seem quite convicted,
Yet salvation to accept

"It seems hard," said the Lieutenant,
As they reach their little home,
"That the sinners seem so careless,
So determined in sin to roam.

"I don't wish to leave the conflict,
But I know I must, I must,
For I cannot bear the trials
That each day on me are thrust."

Then the Captain, whose own heart
Was pitying and full of love,
For to-day is her listening ear
Many sad stories had been poured.

Said: "My lassie just remember
Your vows made not long ago,
When the Spirit was the attraction,
You will not forsake it now.

Did you not expect some suffering
And the way not always bright?
Can you not rejoice under trials?
Walk in faith when not by sight.

It is He that overcometh,
Endures to the end, is true,
The abiding consciousness makes,
Obeys the voice of God right through.

Let us now before our Father
At His throne fresh courage seek.
I am sure that our dear Jesus
Will strengthen to your help and heart speak.

That forever you shall banish
Thoughts by the dark tempter given,
Determine never to cease fighting
Till you cross death's stream for heaven."

And before the Throne our lasses
Knelt as they commended themselves to God,
Knowing if the way brought darkness,
It is but the path He trod.

Then the hosts of hell's dark legions
Became backed—a consecrated band;
Our dear lassies are victorious,
Forever by His grace they'll stand.

What, tho' sinners' hearts are hardened,
Difficulties seem both thick and fast,
If they only share His cross here
They shall shine with Him at last.

PAT'S PICKINS.

The top o' the mornin t' you. Shur an Misthur Edithur, its mesel that's pleased t' see yo' once me so much be consintin' t' lis me tin minuts wuthout yawnin' t' me, and cherin salvashun paper, in fuch t' make mose t' me comrade's fu things fuch you ar pleased t' call pat's pickins. Wi me comrade jist hould on til Oi tel yo. In the furshat place Oi musht prase the swee Lord for savin a soul from dhrink an the divil in al shada, Glory halelujia. Next that kan Oi say with regrd t' the wonderful work of the Army, Oi am delayed t' be a fourm a part ov. It id be euf for al fim t' assurt its gron lok a pratie in rank wh. Salvashun Army roun, not onle in Marlow but in al quarthers av the glob, an shur its jaklashun brings t' me mind the fact that we in beoun a world wid lambs acros th brod ocan. In inja is sum av our brudhers an sisthers fiht under the flag, yonther in Australya is our mush esteemed cumrad Shaf-Kaptin Mos. This in the phil cuntry (that yonder

CONTENTS:

	Page
With Bells Pealing
Blessed Assurance; I Know Whom I Believe; The One for the Sweet; Know The Lord Jesus; What I saw and heard
The Y.M.C.W. Band; Chillings Chilled; A Contrast; Prince Battles; Sunshine Corner
With Rice, Bonds (continued); War Notes
Salvation for Sale; Is Poverty Perfect; Acknowledgements
Victories; Fate Pickles; New Year's Day; What Was Good Cover; Broken Vows
Salvation Army; Salvation Army; Two Deaths; Sold Bonds; A Word of Cheer
Rescued Bonds; Headquarters' Happenings
Rescued Bonds (continued); A Genuine Hero; Wee Bad Mouse; French Tour in the East
A Prince; Sunshine Corner; Newfoundland Snacks; Hallelujah Hash; Training Home Division
Self-Denial Week; Dominion Notes
War and Peace Measures; New Year's Eve; Ye Our Auxiliaries; The Old Homestead; Canada Salutes Commissioner Coombs
London Light Infantry Overtures; Peterboro' Citadel Notes; Montreal Minor; Barrie Scamps
Was Cut Down; Ministering Angels; From Over the Border
Concert Arrows; Advertisements

EASTERN SYMPATHY

The Following is the Copy of a Letter of Sympathy Sent to the General by Major Jacobs.

GENERAL WM. BOOTH, LONDON.—

MY DEAR GENERAL,—On behalf of the officers and soldiers of New Glasgow, Stellarton, Westville, and Pictou, assembled at New Glasgow, N. S., on New Years afternoon for Soldiers Council, we wish to send our heart-felt love and sympathy to you at this time of affliction, praying that you may be wonderfully sustained in this time of need. We also take this an opportunity of covenanting afresh with God the vows we have made of faithfulness and loyalty to the principles of the Salvation Army, and declaring before God and man that our full determination of doing our very best in conjunction with the 20,000 Soul Boom, now started in Canada. Feeling that precious souls are dying, we go forth as individuals to the rescue.

With salvation love,

I am yours for God and the 20,000 souls,

C. T. JACOBS,
Major.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

All correspondence for Headquarters, whatever the nature of the matter or subject may be, should be addressed to the Commissioner, and not to the head of the department, with the name of the department in the corner.

T. H. ADAMS.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS!

RESCUE HOME.

Friend, per Staff-Captain Totten, $5; Friend, city, $5; Kilgour Bros. $5; Headquarters' Boys, $5; Bro. D. Webster, $5; Friend, per Father Bye, $2; Mrs. Rodgers, $1; Mrs. Philpott, $1; Mrs. Donison Vernon, $1; H. F. Dwight, $2; A. Sampson, $2; J. E. Rodgers, $1; Mrs. D. Wyld, $1; Friend, per Staff-Capt. McHardy, $5; Miss McKee, $1; Mrs. Tait, Orillia, $1; J. G. Gennouge, $1; Mrs. Ashton, $1; Mrs. W. D., 50c.; R.H.T., $1; J. Abell, $1; Bates & Dodds, $1; Cooper Bros., $1; J. Green, $1; Mr. Cooper, $1; W. J. Gage & Co., $2; Mr. Agar, 50c.; Wyld, Grassett & Co., $1; H. Moyle, Sheriff Hales, $0.60; Mr. Crosby, quilt; $1; Mrs. Manson, 50c.; Capt. Smith, $1.67; Mr. Golds, pans, $1; Friend, Lippincott St., $1; Mother Dalton, handkerchiefs; Mrs. Cunningham, fruit; Mrs. Campbell, 50c., fruit; Mrs. Dr. Aikens, fruit, and Mrs. H. Goodsham, turkey; Mrs. Macdonald, goose; A. Durie, cross; Friend, west Toronto, nuts, candies; Mrs. Evans, Brampton, $1.

WANTED!

For the Officers' Home of Rest Toronto.

A Washing Machine, also a Mangle. Will any kind friend send us either or both. The Lord bless you. MRS. LANGWAY, Matron, 397 George St., Toronto.

BOYS WANTED!

Two stalwart, intelligent, well-saved boys wanted for Headquarters—must be Salvationists. Apply by letter, stating age and salary required, to Commissioner, Salvation Temple, Toronto.

ORIGINAL SALVATION SONGS.

1. 20,000 SOUL BOOM!

ANOTHER WAR SONG BY STAFF-CAPTAIN LEIGHTON.

TUNE—I've found a friend in Jesus, or, The little old log cabin.

Throughout the whole Dominion our battle cry is heard,
That bids us go to seek and save the lost, And soldiers by the thousand have rallied at the word.
To win the fight for God at any cost;
In spite of hellish legions we'll conquer in the fight,
As onward our Army chariot rolls,
We'll spread the fame of Jesus, and hold aloft the light,
And bring lost Jesus twenty thousand souls.

CHORUS.

Then forward to the battle, our motto fire and blood,
To save the lost our Army chariot rolls;
In spite of hellish legions we'll win the fight for God,
And bring to Jesus twenty thousand souls.

The devil is against us, likewise the world and pride,
And all the hosts that live for self and sin,
But with us is King Jesus, and with Him on our side
We know that we the victory shall win.
Then on, Salvation soldiers, and raise your battle cry,
As faster still the chariot onward rolls,
We mean to have the victory, we'll conquer if we die,
And bring to Jesus twenty thousand souls.

The foes of God and righteousness we'll fearlessly assail,
And tell them of the pardoning love of God in Christ;
We'll tell them that our Saviour was never known to fail
A guilty soul that came to Jesus' blood.
The poor wretched backslider we'll lead to Jesus' feet,
And from their hearts the load of sin shall roll;
We'll never rest contented till the number is complete,
And we've brought to Jesus twenty thousand souls.

2

BY CAPT. GURNEY.

TUNE—Shout aloud salvation, boys.

Twenty thousand souls we want in our Dominion fair,
Twenty thousand souls we'll have if God will give us power,
Twenty thousand rescued slaves, whose shouts will rend the air,
As we go marching to glory.

CHORUS.

March on, march on, we bring the jubilee,
Pray on, pray on, the Saviour will set free,
With blood and fire o'er land and sea, this anthem will be sung,
As we go marching to glory.

The devil will say you are no good to help to win the lost,
But God will work through every heart that's cleansed from sin and dross,
The devil lies, so on we go to bring them to the Cross,
As we go marching to glory.

Pray on your knees, pray everywhere, that God will show His power,
In meeting, open-air, and march, will show it every hour,
Souls will be saved, God glorified, the devil will lick sour,
As we go marching to glory.

3

CAPT. MRS. CUNNINGHAM.

TUNE—Bringing in the Sheaves.

Many hearts are breaking, many souls are dying,
Many feet are traveling from the heavenly gate,
Going far from Jesus and the precious blood,
Who will help to rescue twenty thousand souls?

CHORUS.

Twenty thousand souls,
Twenty thousand souls;
Who will help to rescue
Twenty thousand souls?

In our fair Dominion, during these six months,
We hope to see this number brought into the fold.
With some faith and praying, and some devils slaying,
We go forth to rescue twenty thousand souls.

Some will point their finger, laughing at our efforts,
And, of course, will say we are a lot of fools;
But our God is able, of those very people,
To add unto the number twenty thousand souls.

Forward now my comrades, in the strength of Jesus,
Bringing back the wanderers to the Saviour's fold;
Telling sin-sick sinners of a Christ who'll save them—
Go and help to rescue twenty thousand souls.

4 THE GOSPEL SHIP.

BY CAPT. JACK ADDIS.

TUNE—The ship that never returned.

The Gospel ship at anchor is lying,
She is booked to sail to-day;
To fill her state-rooms, her agents are trying,
They are giving the tickets away.
Her steam is up, her flag is flying,
There is a crowd for room for more;
Come and pass the Doctor, He'll take you if you're dying;
She is bound for Canaan's shore.

CHORUS.

Will she ever return, no she'll never return,
For it's better on before;
It's a land that flows with milk and honey,
She is bound for Canaan's shore.

On board she has first-class accommodation,
No dividing ropes you will find;
Her passengers, whatever their station,
Are all bound for one port of call.
Her crew are saved and sanctified,
King Jesus, her Captain's name;
'Twas to magnify Her King she died,
And down from glory came.

Her starting place is the famed Red River,
That flowed from the Captain's side;
She has on time, independent of weather,
And she waits not for the tide.
The winds may blow, and the snow-clouds gather,
They obey the Captain's will;
His power is the same to-day and forever,
It was Christ said, "Peace be still."

5 FIGHTING SOLDIERS.

BY A. GOODCHILD, R.T.R.

TUNE—We are out on the ocean sailing.

I'm a soldier in the Army,
And I'm fighting for the Lord,
And the devil cannot harm me,
For I'm trusting in His word.

CHORUS.

Simply trusting every moment
As the years are rolling on,
And through life I am determined
Jesus shall be all my song.

When temptations round me gather,
And the way seems dark as night,
Then through grace I labor still faltor,
Only trusting in His might.

Though the way be sometimes thorny,
And I'm weary in the fight,
Yet this shall be still my story,
Jesus makes my pathway bright.

Sinner, won't you come to Jesus,
And a full salvation have?
Cast yourself right on the altar,
Trusting in His power to save.

6 SINNER, BACKSLIDER—COME.

TUNE—Go on to victory.

Come to-night, oh, sinner, sad and weary,
You have found sin's path is rough and dreary,
Satan's slave—your prospects are all gloomy—
Jesus calls; come! come!
Lay aside all care, and upward looking,
See your Saviour, Jesus, for you dying,
Humbly bow, let at His feet now kneel—
Jesus calls; come! come!

CHORUS.

When the sinner's path is rough,
Let him bear in mind,
In our Saviour strength enough
His may always find;
Satan's yoke, however tough,
Broken through shall be,
For Christ shall gave the victory.

Come to-night, backslider, lost and wandering,
You are poor, deep-hearted, and all weary,
Will you heed the Saviour's last entreaty?
Jesus calls; come! come!
You have heard our tender Saviour's wooing,
In days gone by, when the Lord was close by,
Oh, return, He'll make your heart rejoicing,
Jesus calls; come! come!

So! He's waiting, come with tears and sorrow,
"All that thou hast done, may well be forgiven."
Thus He speaks, and loving, does an olive thee,
Jesus calls; come! come!
He has shed His precious blood to save you,
That from sin and Satan He might free thee,
Trust Him now and you His power shall see—
Jesus calls; come! come!

Canada Salutes Commissioner Coombs

Great welcome meetings to Commissioner Coombs were held at Melbourne, Australia, on Christmas Day. A cable from that place was sent from Headquarters on behalf of the Canadian wing. God bless Australia.

Official Gazette

PROMOTIONS.

Capt. Braund, of Welland, to be Sergt-Major, Bod. of Barrie Division.

Private Grace Drew, of Toronto II., to be Cadet at Brantford Depot.

Private Chas. Ketting, of Summerside, P. E. I., to be Cadet at St. John T. H.

MARRIED.

At Whitby, on Dec. 23rd, by Staff-Capt. Philpott and Bolton, Capt. Edward Wilman, who came out from Toronto, and now stationed at Tilbury Centre, to Capt. Ida Wardhaugh, who came out from Belleville, and was the only Toronto lass.

At St. John, N. B., on Dec. 16th, by Major Jacobs, Capt. A. E. Kimble, who came out from Halifax, N. S., and is now stationed at Guysboro, to Capt. May Smith, who came out from Toronto II., and was last stationed at Woodstock, Ont.

H. Adams.
Comm'r.

Territorial Headquarters,
Salvation Temple,
Toronto.

THE WAR CRY

SATURDAY, JANUARY, 18TH, 1913.

Self-Denial Results.

Give God the glory! We publish in this issue the results of the spirit reigns self-denial week, the amount contributed to the Canadian Work of Self-Denial. With great joy we record the grand total of $7,690.13. It is very pleasing for us to know, as an Army, that this year's total is more than double the amount received last year. We feel no greater or more conclusive argument could be produced by us in proof of the mighty influence our own people have in the Army, its workings, and principles, than the amount given or collected by our own people and soldiers themselves, viz., more than one half the amount received. Likewise the amount given by friends and even those looking through the "door to door" appeals, so strongly to assure us that it is well understood from whence the recent attempts to sow discontent in our ranks emanated. The devil has never been friendly with the Salvation Army, but has always looked upon us as a foe to be [illegible] for which we thank God. We have the approval of God and the hatred of the devil, and pray that we may always be to the end. We commend this list to the study of our officers and soldiers. There are some very curious facts to be found between the lines of comparison. It is only fair, to Staff-Capt. Bolton, of Markham Division, to say that the total for Christ's cause in his division, and then those who could weep over unsaved men and women probably filled with tears as He looked forwards and saw this son of luxury, a wretched outcast spirit, tormented in the flames of hell, crying for a drop of water to cool his poor parched tongue.

My comrades, I am sure that this is the way in which Jesus Christ looked at the poor men and women in His day, and it is after this fashion, if our eyes are opened, that we shall behold them in ours.

2. And then the next quality in this passion for souls is love. With this realization of which I have been speaking, it cannot be otherwise. It is to me, my comrades, who have Christ formed within, that I am writing, and how could a soul possessed of the nature of Christ, in however small a degree, live in the midst of perishing men and women, realizing their worth and their danger, and not love them with some measure of the love wherewith Christ Himself loved them?

We don't mean a love that in anyway approves of or excuses the wave of the ungodly, but a love that while hating these evil courses, compassionates those who walk in them—a love that sees these souls laughing, dancing, and carousing with money and pleasure, and music, and ten thousand other trivialities, all on the brink of the bottomless pit, and underneath with unutterable longings, which cannot rest without seeing them saved, and which cannot bear to see the thought of being in heaven without them.

3. And then, connected with this pity, there must be the sense of responsibility for salvation in Jesus Christ for every one, no matter how sinful, how wretched, how despairing, that may be. Do we realize this? Don't think any man or woman could long live, with the realization of the worth and peril of souls, and the Saviour's dying longing after them of which I have been speaking, without being plunged in despair. It seems to me that it is only to be penetrated by many whose hearts have been woke up to new earth in the light that comes from eternity, and have had some measure of desire to lead man to truth and righteousness, as we have in the apostle David, on one occasion, said, you will remember, "The seal of Thine house hath eaten me up." We have seen people, that his heart was not only filled and charged, but that all within him was absorbed and controlled with an unutterably tender longing for the glory of his God and the salvation of a dying world.

This passion for the salvation of men seems to be made up of three things:—

1. There is the realization of the worth of souls. The reason men don't run after them and tell to win them, and sacrifice themselves in the pursuit, is because they don't perceive their importance and value, nay, they do not even realize the fact that they exist. They only see the earthly, perishing side of men and women around them. When they meet them in the street or in the market-place, or, alas, too often in the barrack, they only see the outer shell—they don't see the kernel which gives the shell its value. They only see the human casket, but not the imperishable gem, the everlasting spirit which it contains. They only see the frail, dying body, and not the endless, immortal, blood-bought soul.

This passion for souls means this vision. The man that has it sees men, not merely as beings of a day, suffering or rejoicing for an hour, and then passing away, but as he is, in his higher, spiritual, imperishable self. He regards him, not merely as a pioneer of earth, but as one who is every hour treasuring up wrath against the day of wrath, or storing up riches which will endure for ever.

Where this vision is, man is judged and cared for, not merely by the relations in which he stands to the beings of earth, but as responsible for every word and act of his life to God, Who will judge him in the last Great Day.

He sees men as beings whom the Father loves, for whom His Son died, and whom the Spirit continually follows with inward cryings and outward beseechings to be reconciled to God and enter heaven of eternal life.

He looks on Lazarus with the same eyes that Jesus Christ did. The Saviour saw the poor man's rags, and sores, and hunger, and, doubtless, pitied and relieved him. But to Christ there was something beneath and beyond his pitiable human condition. He saw him in a sort of heavenly chrysalis state, just ready to burst out of the disgusted, doleful, suffering shell that held him in these circumstances of sorrow, and to fly away. Nay, he looked onwards, and saw him safely lodged in Abraham's bosom.

And so with the rich man in his pride and pomp, and purple and earthly paradise. Christ saw a poor soul in hell, and then those eyes which could weep over unsaved men and women probably filled with tears as He looked forwards and saw this son of luxury, a wretched outcast spirit, tormented in the flames of hell, crying for a drop of water to cool his poor parched tongue.

My comrades, I am sure that this is the way in which Jesus Christ looked at the poor men and women in His day, and it is after this fashion, if our eyes are opened, that we shall behold them in ours.

2. And then the next quality in this passion for souls is love. With this realization of which I have been speaking, it cannot be otherwise. It is to me, my comrades, who have Christ formed within, that I am writing, and how could a soul possessed of the nature of Christ, in however small a degree, live in the midst of perishing men and women, realizing their worth and their danger, and not love them with some measure of the love wherewith Christ Himself loved them?

We don't mean a love that in anyway approves of or excuses the wave of the ungodly, but a love that while hating these evil courses, compassionates those who walk in them—a love that sees these souls laughing, dancing, and carousing with money and pleasure, and music, and ten thousand other trivialities, all on the brink of the bottomless pit, and underneath with unutterable longings, which cannot rest without seeing them saved, and which cannot bear to see the thought of being in heaven without them.

3. And then, connected with this pity, there must be the sense of responsibility for salvation in Jesus Christ for every one, no matter how sinful, how wretched, how despairing, that may be. Do we realize this? Don't think any man or woman could long live, with the realization of the worth and peril of souls, and the Saviour's dying longing after them of which I have been speaking, without being plunged in despair. It seems to me that it is only to be penetrated by many whose hearts have been woke up to new earth in the light that comes from eternity, and have had some measure of desire to lead man to truth and righteousness, as we have in the apostle David, on one occasion, said, you will remember, "The seal of Thine house hath eaten me up." We have seen people, that his heart was not only filled and charged, but that all within him was absorbed and controlled with an unutterably tender longing for the glory of his God and the salvation of a dying world.

This passion for the salvation of men seems to be made up of three things:—

1. There is the realization of the worth of souls. The reason men don't run after them and tell to win them, and sacrifice themselves in the pursuit, is because they don't perceive their importance and value, nay, they do not even realize the fact that they exist. They only see the earthly, perishing side of men and women around them. When they meet them in the street or in the market-place, or, alas, too often in the barrack, they only see the outer shell—they don't see the kernel which gives the shell its value. They only see the human casket, but not the imperishable gem, the everlasting spirit which it contains. They only see the frail, dying body, and not the endless, immortal, blood-bought soul.

This passion for souls means this vision. The man that has it sees men, not merely as beings of a day, suffering or rejoicing for an hour, and then passing away, but as he is, in his higher, spiritual, imperishable self. He regards him, not merely as a pioneer of earth, but as one who is every hour treasuring up wrath against the day of wrath, or storing up riches which will endure for ever.

Where this vision is, man is judged and cared for, not merely by the relations in which he stands to the beings of earth, but as responsible for every word and act of his life to God, Who will judge him in the last Great Day.

He sees men as beings whom the Father loves, for whom His Son died, and whom the Spirit continually follows with inward cryings and outward beseechings to be reconciled to God and enter heaven of eternal life.

He looks on Lazarus with the same eyes that Jesus Christ did. The Saviour saw the poor man's rags, and sores, and hunger, and, doubtless, pitied and relieved him. But to Christ there was something beneath and beyond his pitiable human condition. He saw him in a sort of heavenly chrysalis state, just ready to burst out of the disgusted, doleful, suffering shell that held him in these circumstances of sorrow, and to fly away. Nay, he looked onwards, and saw him safely lodged in Abraham's bosom.

And so with the rich man in his pride and pomp, and purple and earthly paradise. Christ saw a poor soul in hell, and then those eyes which could weep over unsaved men and women probably filled with tears as He looked forwards and saw this son of 20,000 SOULS.

By the General.

This project is everywhere admitted to be great and glorious. From the north and the south, the east and the west, come words of welcome. Staff and Field Officers, both at home and abroad, are taking it up with vigor; and now we must give ourselves up to the practical methods of accomplishing it, some of which I want to set before you, only regretting that I can say so little in a single paper, and that what I have to say has to be written in such a hurried manner.

Now, how is the scheme to be worked out to a successful result? I reply, that the main thing, seems to me to be, that officers and soldiers should get into the spirit of it. This will carry all before it. The spirit of a man not only makes him, determines the character of his habits, conversation, employments, and everything else about him, but also decides the question of success.

If a man has money-making spirit, he will probably make money. If a man has an ambitious spirit, he will possibly vault to some higher grade of life than that in which he was born. If a man has a soul-saving spirit, he will certainly save souls. It matters little what the circumstances may be. Therefore, the question comes one of us is to come into the possession of a absorbing passion, for the salvation of men.

That Passion for Souls.

What is it? How can we describe it? You know something of it, my comrades, from experience. The fire of it has burned in your bones in the days gone by; the fever has glowed in your blood, the pity has swelled in your hearts for the perishing. But I want you to know more of it. I want to know more myself. David, on one occasion, said, you will remember, "The seal of Thine house hath eaten me up." We have seen people, that his heart was not only filled and charged, but that all within him was absorbed and controlled with an unutterably tender longing for the glory of his God and the salvation of a dying world.

This passion for the salvation of men seems to be made up of three things:—

1. There is the realization of the worth of souls. The reason men don't run after them and tell to win them, and sacrifice themselves in the pursuit, is because they don't perceive their importance and value, nay, they do not even realize the fact that they exist. They only see the earthly, perishing side of men and women around them. When they meet them in the street or in the market-place, or, alas, too often in the barrack, they only see the outer shell—they don't see the kernel which gives the shell its value. They only see the human casket, but not the imperishable gem, the everlasting spirit which it contains. They only see the frail, dying body, and not the endless, immortal, blood-bought soul.

This passion for souls means this vision. The man that has it sees men, not merely as beings of a day, suffering or rejoicing for an hour, and then passing away, but as he is, in his higher, spiritual, imperishable self. He regards him, not merely as a pioneer of earth, but as one who is every hour treasuring up wrath against the day of wrath, or storing up riches which will endure for ever.

Where this vision is, man is judged and cared for, not merely by the relations in which he stands to the beings of earth, but as responsible for every word and act of his life to God, Who will judge him in the last Great Day.

He sees men as beings whom the Father loves, for whom His Son died, and whom the Spirit continually follows with inward cryings and outward beseechings to be reconciled to God and enter heaven of eternal life.

He looks on Lazarus with the same eyes that Jesus Christ did. The Saviour saw the poor man's rags, and sores, and hunger, and, doubtless, pitied and relieved him. But to Christ there was something beneath and beyond his pitiable human condition. He saw him in a sort of heavenly chrysalis state, just ready to burst out of the disgusted, doleful, suffering shell that held him in these circumstances of sorrow, and to fly away. Nay, he looked onwards, and saw him safely lodged in Abraham's bosom.

And so with the rich man in his pride and pomp, and purple and earthly paradise. Christ saw a poor soul in hell, and then those eyes which could weep over unsaved men and women probably filled with tears as He looked forwards and saw this son of

THE WAR CRY MOUNTAIN.

One thousand six hundred is the number inscribed on the flag of Major Morris, in the picture of the WAR CRY Mountain in the corner of the Scoreboard, and that 1600. Parkhill's 75 must have been overlooked. It should be rectified next week.

FAY.

How the Boom Goes

Carried Forward from Last Week	281
Peterboro' Citadel	27
Eastern "	16
Montreal "	12
Training Home "	10
Hamilton "	9
Barrie "	8
London "	8
Kingston "	7
Western "	6
Chatham "	6
Ottawa "	4
West Nova Scotia "	3
Newfoundland "	3
Woodstock "	3
Palmerston "	2
Toronto "	1
Total up to Date	401

HEADQUARTERS' HAPPENINGS

By One in It.

How we are jogged! The "one in it" has for the last three weeks been pretty much "out of it" having been rusticating in our Home of Rest; but being once more in his little hole in the corridor, he must make up for lost time.

* * *

I don't know whether la grippe has got here, or whether it's a disease found only at Headquarters, but almost everybody around has some kind of an ailment or other; no doubt in time it will all pass away.

* * *

Our Mixed Musical Medley Troupe is now well in harness. They had a very enjoyable time at Brampton on Saturday and Sunday, the 4th and 5th, and one soul at Richmond street on Monday night after a beautiful and lively time two souls came out to get victory over some besetting sins. I trust they got it.

* * *

The writer hardly know Headquarters when he got back, nearly every office in the place except his own had been changed. Our statistical friends have been turned out of their office to make room for Staff-Lieut. Neal and her A. D. C. in the Acrilic very work, but have found room for the soles of their feet in one of the new offices formed out of the old officers' quarters. The other two new offices will be occupied in the course of a few days by the Property and Legal Department, under Lieut. Carpenter and the Commissions Department.

* * *

I don't know whether it's rather late, but I think I ought to congratulate Staff-Lieut. Neal on her promotion. I am sure she will be quite an acquisition to the Staff. God bless you, M. S. N. in your new labors and give you all the grace you need.

* * *

And then I've got to welcome Major Holland, our new Field Secretary, to Headquarters. Welcome, Major! I believe you will find us a proper lot of boys, even if it is I who say it. And we'll miss our other little Major quite a lot. He has been with us about two years and we've got to know each other pretty well in that time, still the war demands must be met and so we acquiesce.

* * *

Adjutant Cousins writes from Brussels: "Good day, comrades, I will be visiting you down-pour of rain. The devil alive here, so are the soldiers. In for war and victory. One more prayer, TWO cries pray for mercy. Our motto is, 1,000 souls for this Division."

* * *

Soul Boom. Sunday big crowds, Divisional Auditor to the front. Eight souls in the fountain. Yours for the 20,000 souls.

STAFF-CAPT. COOPER.

ST. JOHN, N.B.

Reports to date show forty-three prisoners captured for the week.

JACOBS.

Souls! Souls! Souls!

Let this be the burden of every Officers' and Soldiers' heart.

A Successful Officer does see Souls Saved.

Deal very faithfully with every soul who comes to your penitent-form.

WHAT THE BOOMER SAYS.

Souls for God is now our motto,
On to get them, we will plod
Untiring in our zeal, we ought to Lead by love and life to God.

Boom's the word which gives expression
Of our keen desire to save;
On then comrades, learn the lesson,
Move into your places to-day!

Yes! A new boomer has just lately moved into the new boming office. There is not much of him in person, but that's good, when there is, is going to be used (so he says) to the joyful service of the Lord, in the work of keeping track of the coming converts for whom we are praying; for whom all are believing, and whom by God's Grace, we are going to get saved in duplicate, that is in the Lamb's Book of Life, as well as in their Soldiers' Roll.

The new boomer wishes in all sincerity, to solicit the prayers of every reader, and pray that he may be equipped with the dauntless Spirit of Christ, and with a good measure of Solomon's wisdom, to perform his part of this new business, in a way that shall cause the bells of heaven to ring over its successful issue. As far as the boomer is concerned about this scheme, he is just in love with it, and is itching to get it in full swing. Indeed, who wouldn't be the loves God, and has a burning desire to see devils cast out of human bodies?

I say, comrades! let us buckle on the armor another hole tighter, so that we may not become round shouldered as it were, and thereby become hindered in the work; and having this proof armor on, let us in the name of Jesus with sanctified hearts, and dogged daring, rush to snatch an almost blazing world from the devil's red-hot fingers.

Yours, to always dare,

WEE BOOMER.

WHAT THEY SAY.

Staff-Capt. Southall writes:—Grand time at Watch-night service, St. John; FOUR SOULS and TWO during the day. FOURTEEN in four days, numbers at Salvation United Soldiers' Meetings Friday. Officers and Soldiers enthusiastic about 20,000 soul boom.

* * *

Adjutant Cousins writes from Brussels: "Good day, comrades, I will be visiting you down-pour of rain. The devil alive here, so are the soldiers. In for war and victory. One more prayer, TWO cries pray for mercy. Our motto is, 1,000 souls for this Division."

* * *

NEW GLASGOW, N.S.

Commissioner is kept very busy these days, and has hardly a moment to himself, but he doesn't seem to mind. I guess the harder he works the happier he is.

* * *

Glad to tell everyone that Capts. Goulds and Wood are both bettered and hope to work as hard as ever. God healed them both over at the Home of Rest. They give Him all the glory, and we hope they will be from well. No doubt they will have a lively time picking up their back work, but they have every grace and strength necessary I do believe.

* * *

Capt. Wiggins is still home sick, I understand, with inflamation of the lungs. He needs everyone's prayers.

* * *

Owing to our prayer meeting room being made into offices, our morning knee-drills are now held in the store on the first floor with the entrance from the street; so it will not be hard for anyone to find out who wants to get blessed.

* * *

In spite of influenza, etc., we are all keeping beautifully saved, and have but one object in our work, and that is, the salvation of souls.

KNEE-DRILL ECHOES

From the

Essex Centre!

"Lord, I believe in forgiving
To all things I've been forgiving
A rest where pure enjoyment reigns,
And Thou art ever alone.

Oh, the blood of Jesus,
The precious blood of Jesus,
Washes from all sin.

A rest where all our souls desire
Is fixed on things above,
Where fear, and sin, and grief expire,
Cast out by perfect love."

So it rang out, it would need phonography or Phonography and stenography combined to take in the peals of praise and happy faces and the expressions of full hearts. Suffice it to say that twenty-two of us gathered at knee-drill and a few echoes transpired.

"Oh Lord, I thank you for something my soul. I've had such a rest and peace since Friday night. I've got the fulness of God and I did not get it without knowing it."

"Lord we do not depend on education we depend upon Thee," and the Spirit said, "God is the author of all knowledge," so though we be as illiterate as the most uneducated, if we depend on God we will have knowledge sufficient for all times.

"I feel like chawing up the devil." fear he would be a nasty mouthful.

"I'm glad I'm one of the Lord's children." Glad to know you know, brother? "I got the witness within." "What kind of a witness?" "The Holy Ghost power." Very glad to hear such. Only when the life bears testimony to it, as it does in this case.

"I've been hard at work all week, and I'm very tired, but bless Him, Jesus is with me all the time. Even when I am in my bed I feel it is rested about me as a wall of fire, my blessed Jesus."

"He keeps me unspotted from sin," is the testimony of one who gave a "cut and dried" testimony once before.

"And He's a never failing Friend," says a sister who has been much tried with sickness in her home. "I am here this morning because I feel God wants me here, and I go and do just as He tells me to."

"I never used to care for knee-drill," says one of the H.T.B. converts from Dutton. "I'd rather sleep than pray. Now I find the more I do for Jesus the more He blesses me."

"I have not been faithful. When I look at the past I feel ashamed of myself, for it seems to me although I've been so unfaithful, that God has done almost more for me than anyone else."

"I feel glad that Jesus loves me, and since yesterday afternoon, when God so wonderfully blessed our J. S. meeting, and saved souls so wonderfully, I have been so happy and thankful, I'm going on to victory."

"Ye shall have a song as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept, and gladness of heart as when one goeth with a pipe into the mountain of the Lord, to the mighty One of Israel, and the Lord shall cause His glorious voice to be heard." so reads Isaiah, and we praised Him that so many of us have heard "His glorious voice, and that the noise of it was a sweeter far than any earthly voice. Praise His name. We're going on to blessed victories.

LA MESIE ALLMULIA!

A GENERAL MOVE

At SX Centre.

"Tis impossible to describe the wonderful way in which God is working, sufficient to say—

The unsanctified drawes the crowd, right to Himself,"

Already several noted sinners have plunged into the fountain of Jesus' blood. And talk about Newfoundlanders jumping, etc., the R.C.'s are beginning to fear folks aren't properly saved until they get the glory.

You would laugh, dear Editor, could you see the sights to which our eyes are rapidly becoming accustomed. People shouting, laughing, jumping, fighting, thumping, kicking happy.

Please don't think, for a moment that I exaggerate, I speak the truth. Oh! no. It is all absolutely true. Perhaps folks think it rather vulgar, and perhaps it may be that the way in which we endeavor to express our joy is more original than refined; all the same, as Shem says, "we're getting there."

By the way, Shem is coming on remarkably well, and bids fair to be a real surgeon ere soon.

Bro. Robinson had a lively little war dance, the other evening with his brother, who, after a few days ago, came of from Egypt land.

For further items of interest, please keep your eyes open, for assuredly the devil is getting thrashed badly in this little town.

ONE OF THE CROWD.

Souls! Souls! Souls!

Let this be the burden of every Officers' and Soldiers' heart.

A Successful Officer does see Souls Saved.

Deal very faithfully with every soul who comes to your penitent form.

WEST-END NOTES

DEAR EDITOR,—

If you will allow me space, I would like to tell you a little or two about what the Army is doing in the West-End.

Things are moving on. Essex Centre is just a-booming. A friend of mine wrote me that the Captain's name was Wadds, and that she is a corker to talk and dare straight with all whom she comes in contact, and the outcome is lots of souls saved, and a good number going to become soldiers, and I would say "that's the stuff—get them into soldiers."

I am a well-wisher of the Army myself, and not ashamed to be found in their company, and I have sat on their platforms and I hope to again.

Windsor, I am led to believe, is keeping up its reputation both for saved souls and WAR CRY selling; but the Captain, poor fellow, I hear, is very sick, and I think we Christians should hold him up to the throne as well as the soldiers. God bless him. Many souls have been saved there and more souls and more are found on the march. They don't forget the bridge that carried them over.

There is Kingsville, where Captain and Mrs. Trott are working away, and God is helping them to wipe off the dust and gather souls saved as well, and I heard the D.O. say they were raising the WAR CRY. Probably their neighbors will take the hint and go up a few, too.

I am informed that the recent high wind blew to end and of the Queen's barracks and they are unable to hold meetings. It seems too bad, as the faithful girl (Lieut. Green, R. M.) who has been there nearly a year, has just got a good interest wakened up, and has now no place to hold meetings in; but God, who is wise, will allow His servants what to do. "Poor D.O."

Chatham soldiers seem to be awakening an interest in town, and a few souls are being saved. They have 50 on the roll and 55 and 60 on the march at times, and 12 bandsmen in full uniform. The Captain is a good one, I say that is the Captain who she has been here, over 60 have professed to get saved, over 30 out for holiness and several added to the roll.

The watch-night meeting appeared to be a big time. Everybody got to get in and get my soul well blessed. The leader exhorted them to pull themselves up and have a sort of a judgement day, and see if they were saved, should it come that night. I tell you we looked inside and outside to see where we were, and then we all got on our knees, and when the bell rang for twelve, "Silence and pray" was the order, and we did. The leader prayed for Jesus to send one who wanted to get saved, and out came THREE and got grandly saved.

The brass band was on hand at the close, and they, with the soldiers, went out for a big time. Now, I tell you they made things hum. I was not asked to go on the march; but I fell in just the same, and got blessed. I would tell you more about it, but no doubt Mordecai or Esther will report it in full.

Every thing in the West seems to be going up, and so am I in my soul. Amen.

AN INFIDEL.

Don't rest contented with getting the 20,000 souls saved, but make them into Soldiers.

A Palmerston Report.

ADJT. COUSINS.

Mrs. Williams Leads Off.

PALMERSTON.—It is some time since you heard from us, but we have been steadily marching on. Sabbath (Sunday) was a day of power. Yesterday (Sunday) Mrs. Williams (ex-Capt. Teagle) was with us, and had a great soldiers' meeting all day. Conviction was stamped on many faces as the blessed Gospel truth was told in all its simplicity, and at the close OVER 60 dear little girl came to the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world. Yours to follow Christ,

G. B. BROADWOOD, Sec'y.

French Tour in the East.

(Continued.)

Leaving Moncton our next stopping place was Shediac, and a very fruitful field, alas! so far as the mission of the Salvation Army is concerned. Between thirty and forty turned out, however, and we warned them faithfully to escape from the wrath to come. We were glad to spend a few hours with the officers here and sought to encourage each other mutually in the fight.

SACKVILLE.

We were reinforced by the officers of Dorchester, and were kindly welcomed by Capt. Smith and Cadet.

The weather was exceedingly severe and the crowd was also partially impeded by a sad drowning accident of skaters, of which one young man was a victim. This fact enabled us to press home the uncertainty of life, but no person decided openly to get assured in the great salvation company.

Boarded the cars the next day for where Capt. and Mrs. Steele (supplyers) did their utmost to make our visit a success. We had a fair crowd and nice meetings, but it was evidently of a better time still on our second visit.

AMHERST,

Capt. Creighton and his Lieutenant were in waiting at next evening to conduct us to our billet. A kind of sleet was falling, which, of course, was not conducive to a large crowd; however, after a lively little march round we took our places in a tolerably well-filled barracks. What struck our attention most was the immense distinction made between colored and white folks, the former being left to occupy the whole of one side of the building, while the whites were hemmed in almost uncomfortably on the other. Personally, I wonder how Truro folks will stand it when Jesus comes to be all one color there? Perhaps so: anyway, I do not think, even in the negative supposition, that Jesus will leave us out that way. Glory to God, because He is no more respecter of men's color than of their tongue, for many we French speaking folks might feel left out.

TRURO DEPOT

However, the meeting was free and enjoyable, and the Captain's departure in her chariot was that the Spirit of the Lord had inspired her to offer herself as a candidate for the Salvation warfare.

The next day being Saturday we took the early morning cars for where, in every sense I think I may say, we had a drowning time. Capt. and Mrs. Frazer gave us a good Salvation welcome, and although unknown before, we soon felt as if we had been enjoyed each other's comradeship mightily.

HALIFAX,

Here we made acquaintance with an old comrade of Sergeant-Major Hall corps, who fought side by side with Major Thonger, of Paris renown, so it was easy to find subjects of mutual interest before we parted.

We had a crowded meeting at night, and much power and liberty rested upon soldiers and souls, which led many to be not without penitents after all.

Sunday's meetings were good from beginning to end. Marches were going, open-airs well listened to, and inside meetings powerful, searching, and, profitable. Lastly, but not least, we were told had to turn away. May God grant that they be not so fatal to the Angel on's gates at last. In spite of tears and entreaties, conviction and appeals, no one ventured to the mercy seat. Although we were delighted to hear from Capt. Fraser of TWO SOULS captured on the following evening.

By last time we had seen a deal our way to where everybody had invited us a tremendous good time. Only in one place were we disappointed, and that was brother Hall who had promised to come whilst, of course, prepared for a number of delicate folks from turning out. Saturday night, however, we had a good one, out we marched, with Capt. Evans leading, to the tune of, "They're sunlight to my soul." Lieut. Fanshaw playing accompaniment.

WINDSOR,

Of welcomes we certainly had all the could desire, and many souls saved, and we glad were we to make acquaintances with a number whose fame had reached us so far away as the Gulf of St. Lawrence, I'll it known unto you, Want Cry readers, that two of our French officers were stationed at Windsor in the days gone by.

What struck me on the platform was the predominence of red jerseys and bullet-shaped bonnets. Dubiously I asked, "Is this a warrior's gaze,

Capt. Flossie Johnson, the Canadian wing pioneer, was with us too, being refurlough. One comrade volunteered for the French war.

Receiving many invitations to come again, we departed next day for

BRIDGETOWN.

About 150 people composed our audience, and on the whole, seemed interested and friendly. Capt. Armstrong and Lieut. Ashton were in charge, and, as usual, our visit was not in vain I trust.

ANNAPOLIS

we were again ill-favored by bad weather, and consequently a very small crowd, although those who did come certainly did their utmost to make up for it. Glory be to God, we were

Capt. Boyer greatly interested us with his account of how God is blessing him to be the instrument of blessing to sick bodies as well as to sick souls.

Lieut. Ashton was particularly interested in the French singing.

Next day we took the far-famed little steamboat "Evangeline" as far as Digby, going on by rail to in company with Capt. Archibald, who thought late when we arrived we received a most hearty welcome, and a good crowd filled with sympathetic audience awaited. I must say that, personally, I enjoyed our visit to Yarmouth, although it not more than did the Staff.

YARMOUTH,

The meeting was a blessed success, and we had a good time from the Source of Christ. It was a touching sight. Quite three sisters one had been saved a few days previous, and the third was a young man, never able to leave her room, inexpiable enough so far as this world's goods are concerned, yet rich in the love of Christ, only able to keep body and soul together by the kindness of two or three Christian ladies, stretched on all her wasting strength against the dreaded workhouse fate, and yet a blessed lesson of childlike confidence in our Father he gave for temporal necessities. Father had sent heavy fuel before, surely He would do so again. Lieut. Ashton and Lieut. Fanshaw had spent store and of His child's needs? Will there in her eyes she bade us good-bye, winking as she did so, that she was too poor to help to save the French by our side, and almost fretting because "she could not do it."

Ah! methought, what success and fitting of young and strong folks there are! Perhaps God's Salvation Army is just what they only would, but, alas! alas! it has come to this, that the old and infirm, forgotten and ignorance, are the only ones, and more easily touched with a feeling of sympathy for their fellow-creatures living in darkness and ignorance, than are the young and healthy, whose opportunities are in their own hands. Let God preserve us from hardening our hearts in youth, or waiting for riper years before we let the tender melting influences of His love and the service for Him.

A sister soldier was glad to see us, and said she occasionally got a little help to her in the war, and a personal souvenir by which to remember her as well.

They were found in Yarmouth in the famed Yarmouth jail, whose walls have seen forty conversions under the power of God. Yes, sweet, happy time, Jesus, and a word or two, besides prayer, with the prisoners.

Lastly, but not least, we called on a lady whose heart is under the deep working of the Spirit of Truth. May He bring her out into the large and open place of freedom and liberty enjoyed by the children of God.

Here we must stop, concluding from next week. D. V., in defence of the Editor's relentless scissors.

Yours for war,

ADJUTANT BLOOD.

A Plea for the French.

I've read much about foreign missions,
And the darkness in heathen lands,
I've heard stirring appeals that were
So many so eloquent pleas.
My heart has been moved with pity
For perishing souls abroad,
And I've wished—how I've wished I could Do
To bring the poor heathen to God.

I have read of the terrible Ganges,
Of the cruel torture by fire,
Of the hideous cruelty of the priests,
Till my soul filled with sadness desire;
And I've wept over the woes of the heathen
As such pitiful tales I told,
Of the darkness and superstition
Which envelops the heathen world.

But my soul has been stirred more deeply
Than by all those tales of woe,
By the sights I am daily seeing,
As around through this city I go;
For the deepest, the darkest of darkness
Envelopes the precious souls here,
While misery and superstition
Takes the place of godly fear.

They have beautiful altars and pictures
Gems of beauty and art,
Enchanting and pleasing the senses,
But nothing to reach the heart;
Oh, those beautiful costly treasures,
Tell a pitiful tale to me,
Of hearts that are sad and empty,
Of God that cannot see.

They speak of the souls that are hungry,
They speak of the hearts that long,
For something, not given by the beauty,
Or the pomp of the priest, answering
They're seeking for the salvation,
Striving with penance and tears,
To blot out the stains from the blood of Immanuel
The guilt of many long years.

No one to tell them of Jesus,
Of His wonderful power to save,
Of the Light that hath shined through
Of the darkness of sin.

Bringing home the poor sin-bound slave!
No one to tell them their strivings,
Their penance and tears are in vain,
That a perfect and free salvation,
Was purchased, on Calvary for them.

I still feel for the woes of the heathen,
And pity would help if I could,
The noble Christians who labor,
To bring them to light and to God.
But my pity has still more for those Frenchmen
In darkness so near to our home,
Who are doing so little for Jesus,
So little has ever been done!

Oh! comrades, come over and help us,
The time is fast flooting away!
Oh! listen to the call of the Master—
"Come, work in My vineyard to-day."
While you linger the bright days are passing
Hurrying men on to despair;
The harvest is great, will you garner,
And shout in the "harvest home" share.

W. H.

Others who I saw in the ranks had never before marched before, but the sweet power of God to save was felt a few weeks ago when I heard them cry and pray for mercy, and turned, and I do pray that all will be true to Him who has healed their backslidings and pardoned the past.

A special collection was asked for at No. 2 at a recent Sunday evening's meeting. The audience was small, but very responsive well. On going to the gallery for the same one of the rough lads in the Cadet with the collection bag, I noticed a big blue hand; it showed a good sum. These lads, although unsaved, are interested in the Army meetings, as the note below will show.

Saturday night a "smart" young man—a constant disturber—came to the meeting to have some fun. He went quite a long way, but a little too far, for some of the unsaved lads took him out. He went through the door in haste, and when outside one undertook to give him a thorough thrashing. "He won't you mind your own, Captain," said the thrasher afterwards.

At every corps on the Island they are having large crowds and lots of souls are getting saved. This I heard Mrs. Calhoun say a few days ago as she was looking over a list of the converts' slips.

"Thank God," my heart responded for this cheering news.

The winter is our harvest time seemingly. In summer we sow the seed, water and care for it. We go forth with joy bringing sheaves.

For sometime past I thought there was something missing in the march, but now No. 2 is alright. The soldiers are with Salvation Army like, and—Capt. Connott and his hallelujah wife, being old soldiers, feel more at home in the field with the grand old flag at their head which they love and cherish so much.

I was at the presentation of the above on Thursday last. No. 1 corps was united. I noticed several of the Island officers in the meeting. I learn were in the city for a few days waiting the boats to take them to their different corps. Most of them had been recalled and were going to march on to do their best in other places.

They did not look one bit discouraged, quite the reverse, for I noticed that bright, happy, satisfying look on all their faces. Some of them have been hard at it, "fighting in the good fight of faith" for a year in some cases, sweet, pure salvation is a grand reward in time, and the "Well done" in eternity is all these comrades ask for.

D. O. SWEETMAN.

Four Souls Found Jesus.

PORT ROWAN.—The Devil has been put to flight in this part of the field. On Christmas day several souls were saved. The Devil sent one old dupe along to upset our meeting, but the Captain helped him down quick; he said "Get out of the door," the door-keeper, but through it all we are sweet in soul. On Sunday we divided up—Bro. Fenton and Sister Ingle, in the Centre, and the Lieutenant and soldiers report good meetings at the Port. Captain and Glennie B. had a jig on the platform, and FOUR SOULS found Jesus; also the heroine who saved the Long Point Island crew, professed to find Christ, and still we sing, "Give to Jesus glory!"

HOWARD & WILL.

The Devil Was Robbed.

CALEDONIA.—Another week has passed and gone, and glory be to God, we can truly say, "The God of Jacob has been our help. The past two weeks have been blessed to our souls. The Devil has been terribly defeated, and robbed of two of his followers. We have been getting invaluable in our own souls. The Devil has been real busy in cutting our drum to pieces, but it has returned to us with more good tunes in it, and we are going to let the Devil know that we still mean to conquer. We are determined to never give in; but to conquer or perish.

Victory all along the line!

CAPT. MEDLOCK.

The Captain Farewells.

WELLAND.—After a stay of some six months and a half, fareell orders have arrived for Capt. Benand, and in accordance with the same, we bade farewell on Sunday. There was also a farewell in the Devil's camp, as ONE BACKSLIDER left the path of Christian warfare and sin to God. May God keep him true!—may He keep us all true and help us to appear blameless before Him in the last day! Wishing soldier and maker is God.

LIEUT. J. A. STREET.

God Saved Two Souls.

NIAGARA FALLS.—God has indeed been near us of late, and souls have been getting more life in them, and sinners are filling our barracks. Many are in trouble about their souls. We had TWO saved this week, yet God was not satisfied, and TWO SOULS. Glory to God! "Lost souls are revived, and revived souls are made to be saved, for Jesus has promised."

Yours for Christ, Hartley.

LAS. DURAN.

Training Lands' Division.

MAJOR MARGETTS.

How They Danced.

LIPPINCOTT STREET.—The work is going on here, and the devil is being defeated. The Salvation Army band was conveyed at the close of yesterday afternoon's meeting when THREE came to the mercy seat. The Lieutenant and soldiers danced in a way that only Lippincott Lancers can, and there surely was rejoicing in the camp. We had a good time, Sunday all day, and God bless us. My own testimony is "Living to give Jesus glory."

LIEUT. A. C. RIDDLE.

She Means to Help.

CENTRE STREET.—Surely life is precious enough, we saw in tears and rejoicing joy at Centre St. Such a crowd of unlighted souls, such a sight of sorrow, such a drink and tobacco, come, time after time to the penitent-form to try and be blessed and saved, and yet we know Well night we sit down and weep for the shedding of the people, but God lives, and that gives victory. This we sing and go forward go, praising Him from whom all blessings flow. Yours to help with the twenty thousand.

CAPT. NELLIE PEARSON.

Getting in Earnest.

OTTAWA I.—Just a word to let you know the good news, and, to be sure, you will be glad to hear it. We had SIX more last week. Christmas day was grand; THREE little lasses got saved; they will never forget that day. Sunday, a hard-to-hand fight, but, you ask "who got victory?" Of course, our Leader. Tuesday night, we believe God spoke to all; half will make soldiers. They were all wondering. Glory to God, they've come home. The soldiers are getting in earnest for souls. Glory!

CAPT. M. BRAMWELL.

"We are saved and happy on a Monday,
Saved and happy on a Wednesday and Thursday too,
Friday, Saturday, Sunday,
We are saved the whole week through.

Newfoundland Snacks.

BY JOLLY.

I happened to see Major just after coming home from his tour with Mrs. Calhoun. They had some real good times as they always do, and souls were saved. I heard some to see and hear them, and as a result many hundreds were blessed and several sought pardon.

Some of the meetings took the form of enrollments for soldiers. The rules were read and explained for the first time, but a few could not see the "why-and-wherefore" of such a diary, and I heard of one declare that he was not prepared to consider what God wanted fitted to be an enrolled soldier or not. Patience, Major, patience.

It really comes to my mind that the secret and the will of God is known to those who are willing to do and live out His continually. Sanctified comrades, it does not take God a year to make known His will to my dear. Ah! My faith I can see thousands of holy Salvationists answer, "No, it does not."

AT SEA.

At last St. John's II have got their colors. I saw them floating high in the processor Sunday afternoon, carried by a blood-and-fire lass with two sailyark non each side of her. It seemed to just set off the march, it is unfurled and fluttering in the breeze, giving tone and spirit to all those who love it.

For sometime past I thought there was something missing in the march, but now No. 2 is alright. The soldiers are with Salvation Army like, and—Capt. Connott and his hallelujah wife, being old soldiers.

Notes From West Nova Scotia.

LIEUT. BEATTY.

What He Loves to do.

DIGBY.—By the Spirit that prevails in the meetings we are led to believe for a mighty sunsh in the devil's kingdom soon. Many who have been scattered from God are seeing rhorcks, they are missing the joys of salvation by being the captives of the devil, and long to be made free once more. Jesus loves to save the backslider.

CAPT. J. ALLEN.

Three Souls Saved.

CANNING.—On Wednesday night we had Staff-Capt. Beatty with us, and God wonderfully spoke through him to the people. Many felt their need of Christ. TWO souls were wandering away from God came back to Him. We had good meetings all day on Sunday. In our house HOLINESS MAN asked God to forgive him. He means to be true this time. God bless him. We are believing to see many more come to Jesus and getting right. Pray for us.

CAPT. F. MCLEAN.

TWENTY THOUSAND SOULS!

WE SHALL GET THEM.

According to our faith it shall be done.

Newfoundland News.

MAJOR CALHOUN

Their Drum Head Burst.

HANTS HARBOR.—Praise God. We are steadily marching on in the strength of God. While marching in the Lord and Jesus Christ, the hallelujah drummer burst the head of the drum. The devil was glad, but we got the victory. We had a swinging free-for-all in the afternoon, led by Bros. J. Short and W. Lader. The night meeting was a time of power. Souls were blessed and filled with God. We are believing for lots of souls yet. The devil must yield. "Victory of Jesus."

SAL. A. SINGLE.

She Says "Good-Bye."

GRAND BANK. — We have just said "good-bye" to our dear comrades and kind friends of Grand Bank. During our stay of nearly twelve months we have seen many victories won, and as we review the past we can truly say "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." Bless His name." We shall not soon forget the kindness of the Grand Bank people. We leave behind a little band of blood-washed warriors, who if only true to God will be a blessing to God, and mighty damage to the devil. God bless them.

CAPT. PENNEY.

The Colors Presented.

GREENSPOND.—We have had the pleasure of having Mrs. Major Calhoun with us for a few days. She arrived on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, and on account of the storm she could not leave Glenwood until yesterday, evening. Dec. 1st. On Monday night she presented colors to the Lieut. and soldiers. We had a time to enjoy the meeting, and some said it was the best they had been in for some time. We had a good meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 2nd, the cause of sin. We had a time for those, but feel sure there should have been many more.

CAPT. FEY.

34—Enrolled—34

BAY ROBERTS.—We had another enrollment on Thursday night when 34 other converts were enrolled and decided to give their souls and their Jesus; willing to be anything or nothing for Jesus' sake, that His Kingdom may be extended. We mean to live for Jesus.

LIEUT. A. C. REINS.

One E.N.S. Shot.

D. O. COOPER.

Not a Murder.

PARRSBORO.—The Lord is saving the souls of men and women in this place, and is to the front. At night we had a Drunkards' Home meeting. As Sergt. and Mrs. Wilson, with the Eighth Cadet, of God's power to save, many were led to see the terrible misery that drink brings into a home, and to see Wilson spoke of more afraid many times of being murdered by her husband. Old things have passed away. Now, Sergt. Wilson wears the cap, and Mrs. the bonnet, and indeed they look happy. Jesus is mighty to save.

AND M.

BUY THE NEW ALMANAC FOR 1890.

SELF-DENIAL FUND FOR '89.

Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland.

DIVISIONAL COMPETITION LIST.

To give every Division a fair chance it was arranged to decide the Competition not simply by the totals received, but by a comparison with the total average weekly income in each Division. This will give even the poorest Division a good opportunity of being first, as of course a Division with a large weekly income will need a correspondingly large Self-Denial total to take the head of the list.

Divisional Competition List

On the Average System.

1. Manitoba District.
2. Toronto Division.
3. TORONTO T. H. DIVISION.
4. ST. JOHN T. H. DISTRICT.
5. EAST NOVA SCOTIAN DISTRICT.
6. BRITISH COLUMBIA "
7. WEST NOVA SCOTIAN "
8. PETERBORO DIVISION.
9. LONDON "
10. OTTAWA DISTRICT.
11. KINGSTON DIVISION.
12. NEW BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.
13. HAMILTON DIVISION.
14. WOODSTOCK "
15. PALMERSTON DISTRICT.
16. BARRIE DIVISION.
17. MONTREAL "
18. CHATHAM "
19. NEWFOUNDLAND.

Divisional List.

Showing the Exact Amount Received From Each Division.

Manitoba and Ass. District	$725 73
Toronto T. H. Division	655 97
West Nova Scotia "	645 47
East " "	583 19
Alta and British Colombia Dist.	576 75
London and Stratford District	439 72
New Brunswick District	374 8
Hamilton Division	333 66
Ottawa District	349 07
Toronto Division	341 91
St. John T. H. District	335 43
Peterboro Division	289 35
Kingston "	293 37
Woodstock "	293 01
Barrie "	281 89
Chatham "	290 84
Montreal "	257 62
Palmerston "	231 61
Newfoundland Division	205 05
French Division	3 60
	$7,350 33
C. H. T. D.	157 35
Headquarters Staff	101 52
Direct Donations	72 31
Rescue Home Officers	4 60
Home of Rest Officers	4 00
	$ 339 78
	$7,690 13

Corps List.

Showing the Amounts Received from Each Corps.

Manitoba and Assiniboia Dist.

MAJOR YOUNG.

Winnipeg	$278 80
Portage la Prairie	134 83
Brandon	105 90
Morden	101 40
Neepawa	34 30
Moose Jaw	42 39
Carberry	27 75
Rapid City	17 75
Emerson	9 10
Minnedosa	1 75
	$755 73

Training Home Division.

MAJOR MARGETTS.

Lippincott Street	$82 20
Temple	72 75
Ottawa	73 34
Richmond Street	73 34
Yorkville	26 31
West Toronto Junction	85 27
Liscar Street	51 77
Riverdale	47 79
Brockton	42 12
Arthur Street	33 34
Eastern	81 24
Yorkville T. H.	71 17
Little York	7 16
Rhodes T. H.	16 00
Parkdale	4 26
Queen Street	3 03
Special Donations	24 87
	$680 97

West Nova Scotia District.

STAFF-CAPT. BEATTY.

Halifax I, N. S.	$135 38
Windsor "	112 18
Dartmouth "	74 59
Lunenburg "	67 98
Yarmouth "	59 70
Halifax II "	44 14
Annapolis "	39 76
Liverpool "	37 02
Bridgetown "	30 50
Canning "	17 00
Bear River "	12 12
Digby "	8 45
Freeport "	6 48
Waterville "	6 00
Westport "	3 43
Kentville "	2 48
Lawrencetown "	1 13
Staff-Capt. Beatty	10 00
	$645 47

East Nova Scotia District.

STAFF-CAPT. COOPER.

Charlottetown, P.E.I.	$76 00
New Glasgow, N.S.	62 07
Parrsboro "	51 85
Summerside, P.E.I.	50 26
Pictou, N.S.	29 25
Stellarton, "	30 05
Westville, "	35 10
Cape Breton, C.B.	33 33
S. Sydney, "	32 72
N. Sydney, "	30 22
Oxford, N.S.	28 15
Spring Hill Mines, N.S	20 77
Tatamagouche "	18 90
Vale Colliery, "	16 35
Pugwash, "	12 47
Greenhead, "	8 94
Georgetown, P.E.I.	5 39
Shubenacadie, N.S.	4 88
Staff-Capt. Cooper, "	13 23
	$525 19

Alberta and British Columbia District.

STAFF-CAPT. SCOTT.

Nanaimo	$172 33
Victoria	151 40
New Westminster	102 80
Vancouver	78 03
Calgary	70 50
Kamloops	21 73
	$576 75

London and Stratford District.

MAJOR MORRIS.

Stratford	$59 30
London	48 88
Strathroy	33 04
Goderich	31 75
Seaforth	31 81
Mitchell	24 98
Sarnia	23 39
Clinton	24 05
Watford	21 50
Petrolia	21 32
Forest	21 50
Glen Mac	15 80
Parkhill	12 53
Bayfield	13 00
Wyoming	15 00
Marthaville	12 25
Thedford	8 35
St. Marys	10 00
Oil Springs	7 71
Wyoming	5 85
Exeter	3 25
Major Morris and Scribe	5 50
	$439 72

New Brunswick Division.

STAFF-CAPT. McINTYRE.

Fredericton, N. B.	$94 78
Chatham, "	56 72
St. Stephen "	50 05
Newcastle "	40 00
Campbellton, "	17 00
Moncton, "	24 85
Carried forward	$

Brought forward	$
Woodstock, N. B.	12 85
Amherst, "	12 65
Hillsboro "	11 00
North Head, "	9 67
Sackville "	9 20
Sussex, "	8 75
Dorchester, "	6 55
Hartland, "	7 80
Salisbury, "	5 35
Hopewell Cape, "	6 00
Glen Levit, "	4 95
Douglastown, "	4 40
Woodward's Cove, N.B.	3 75
La Tete, N. B. "	1 65
Bathurst, "	1 00
Petitcodiac "	1 00
St George, "	87
Shediac, "	57
Staff-Capt. McIntyre	5 00
	$374 02

Hamilton Division.

STAFF-CAPT. SWEETMAN.

Hamilton I	$124 90
Simcoe	30 08
Waterdown	31 60
Port Frie	37 32
Dundas	23 37
Port Dover	21 95
St. Catharines	21 32
Hamilton II	20 50
Port Rowan	18 65
Oakville	12 75
Niagara Falls	9 25
Delhi	4 60
Waterford	3 90
Hagersville	1 32
Cobourg	40
No statement	2 95
Staff-Capt. Sweetman	4 00
Capt. McGillivray	1 00
	$333 66

Ottawa District.

ADJUTANT SHARP.

Cornwall	$67 00
Pembroke	40 60
Morrisburg	31 00
Kemptville	30 95
Brockville	29 05
Renfrew	18 60
Maxville	17 98
Carleton Place	16 00
Almonte	13 70
Prescott	11 11
Chesterville	13 01
Athens	10 00
Cobden	9 50
Avonmore	7 00
West Winchester	5 43
Perth	3 35
Adjut. Sharp (personal)	8 00
" " (divisional)	16 60
	$349 07

Toronto Division.

STAFF-CAPT. PHILPOTT.

Bowmanville	$59 24
Owen Sound	51 95
Brampton	39 35
Richmond Hill	34 39
Oshawa	35 48
Lindsay	30 31
Whitby	29 05
Dundalk	14 07
Cavan	12 00
Uxbridge	10 30
Sutton West	30 45
Tyrone	20 45
Unionville	19 35
Shelburne	7 10
Orangeville	3 30
Mount Albert	4 60
Newcastle	3 00
Hampton	5 15
Pickering	2 35
Milton	2 15
Stouffville	1 50
Staff-Capt. Philpott	5 00
	$345 91

St. John T. H. Division.

STAFF-CAPT. and MRS. SOUTHALL.

St. John I	$200 34
St. John II	33 00
Carleton, N. B.	30 58
Fairville, "	26 00
St. John III	19 90
Hampton "	12 35
St. Stephen "	8 45
Staff-Capt. Southall	5 00
Direct Donation	1 00
	$335 43

Peterboro Division.

STAFF-CAPT. MARSHALL.

Peterboro	$88 73
Tweed	36 78
Lindsay	34 34
Bobcaygeon	37 75
Campbellford	24 85
Carried forward	$

Port Hope	$
Cobourg	18
Madoc	21
Brighton	21
Pension Falls	21
Norwood	21
Omemee	21
Millbrook	21
Warkworth	21
Lakefield	21
Oakwood	21
Port Perry	21
Norwood	21
	$289 35

Kingston Division.

MAJOR WOOLLEY.

Kingston	$138 33
Belleville	44 35
Picton	16 40
Deseronto	32 00
Portsmouth	18 00
Odessa	16 47
Napanee	18 00
Yarker	9 11
Bloomfield	12 65
Bath	8 73
Sunbury	5 00
Stirling	5 35
Camifton	4 80
Gananoque	3 35
Cardinal	3 00
Trenton	2 40
Consecon	3 00
Wellington	1 00
Major Woolley	5 00
	$293 37

Woodstock Division.

STAFF-CAPT. BAUGH.

Guelph	$97 38
Woodstock	34 08
Rockwood	29 40
Ingersoll	25 97
Berlin	23 38
Fergus	14 95
Paris	14 45
St. Thomas	13 13
Norwich	10 50
Galt	7 10
Acton	7 85
Plattsville	6 05
Ayr	5 00
Tillsonburg	3 25
Otterville	3 00
Drumbo	2 85
Elora	1 40
Thamesford	1 81
Staff-Capt. Baugh	5 00
	$293 01

Barrie Division.

STAFF-CAPT. BODY.

Barrie	$65 69
Parry Sound	35 97
Orillia	33 12
Feverham	31 58
Stroud	22 90
Midland	19 00
Coldwater	9 78
Hillsdale	9 95
Beaverton	9 00
Huntsville	8 05
Gravenhurst	8 86
Aurora	7 97
Newmarket	7 77
Collingwood	4 35
Minden	9 30
Bracebridge	2 14
Alliston	8 00
Beeton	1 50
Creemore	1 00
Stayner	1 00
Staff-Capt. Body	10 00
	$281 89

Chatham Division.

STAFF-CAPT. BOLTON.

Essex Centre	$18 56
Aylmerburg	37 70
Chatham, Out	35 83
Windsor	31 00
Dresden	19 73
Bothwell	10 00
Corbett	10 44
Wheatley	8 05
Kingsville	5 93
Ridgetown	7 75
Walkerburg	5 05
Wheatley	5 00
Blenheim	4 25
Thamesville	3 35
Highgate	3 50
Chatham	1 75
Tilbury Centre	2 75
Wardsville	2 00
Leamington	1 00
Newbury	1 00
Dutton	1 00
Staff-Capt. Bolton	5 00
	$290 84

Montreal Division.

MAJOR SPOONER.

Lachute	$70 38
Montreal I, and II	56 46
Quebec II	25 40
Cowansville	15 37
Richmond	13 07
Sherbrooke	22 00
Knowlton	8 46
North Coaticooke	10 12
Danville	5 95
Magog	4 00
Bedford	3 50
Coaticooke	1 00
Waterloo	1 00
Major Spooner	4 00
	$257 62

Palmerston Division.

ADJT. COUSINS.

Listowel	$41 18
Palmerston	10 05
Wingham	18 10
Brussels	18 00
Trenton	12 65
Fergus	8 73
Durham	5 05
Harriston	3 25
Chesley	3 05
Walkerton	3 00
Drayson	1 95
Wiarton	2 45
Wroxeter	3 35
Southampton	3 00
Durham	2 00
Blyth	1 70
Mount Forest	1 55
Adjt. Cousins	3 50
	$131 61

Newfoundland Division.

MAJOR CONSIDINE.

St. John's I	$41 33
Grand Bank	12 00
Twillingate	8 50
Brigus	5 50
Bonavista	4 15
Catalina	4 40
Greenspond	2 00
Fortune	1 60
Sundries, no acct	17 29
Major Calhoon	8 00
	$105 05

Quebec French Division.

STAFF-CAPT. SIMCOE.

Montreal III	3 10
St. John's, P.Q	50
	$3 60

JEWELRY received from the following:—

Robert Rushbrook, Fredericton, from St. John, N.B. Corps; a friend, Richmond St.; Miss Lizzie Booth; a young lady of Drumbo; Bro. Clark, Bowmanville; Bro. Reed, Clinton, Ont.; Mr. John Murchison, Meaford; Miss Gregoury, Fredericton; W. E. H. Kerr, Sherbrooke; Mrs. E. Clark, Summerside; Truro Corps; John Flinn, Summerside; Mary Menzie, Sydney; Supt. Ibbetson, Temple Corps; Mrs. Fanny Morrison, Richmond St.; Francis Martin, Maple Hill.

SUMMARY.

To Amt. Soldiers Envelopes	$2,198 13	By Postage, Expressage, Printing, Stationery, &c.	$1,690 13
" " Friends "	1,412 74
" Dona. to Door Envelopes	986 00
" Collected by Officers and Soldiers	1,515 04
" " Collected by Junior Soldiers	344 46
" " Special Donations	439 38
" " Corps Collections	794 86	By Balance to India	6,000 00
	$7,690 13		$7,690 13

Certifi' to be Correct.—A. MORTON, Cashier.

Headquarters, January 7th, 1890.

EAR AND EYE SKETCHES.

From the East.

"AL"

One was an S. A. Soldier, the other a convert. The soldier was fireman in a factory and they were on their knees before the furnace door. In passing I paused to see what was up, and I saw one road from a book "When I am there yo may be also." My heart said "Hallelujah!" and I passed on unobserved, but blessed in my soul by that simple act.

• • • •

Before she met the S. A. she was very bad with spiritual indigestion and attendant vertigo—she tried to swallow spiritual beef-steak, but it was agony. In a holiness meeting in the S. A. God healed her spiritual disease and gave her a full salvation, and now she enjoys the good things of God.

• • • •

A man in the audience said, "If it is God's will you should be a Christian in the S. A. you can not be one anywhere else." I thought it spoke volumes of truth!

• • • •

I had heard him pray before, but I counted this time, and he actually repeated "O, God" eighteen times during a prayer of about a minute in length. Are you a habitual prayer?

• • • •

He said "I am a hero of Waterloo (street corps,) who had rebelled against God for four-score years, and was brought to God in the S. A."

• • • •

He had been under conviction for fourteen years, and during that time a shadow had followed him day and night, but it was dispelled at the Cross and he is now a happy Salvationist. On New Year's morning he had the joy of seeing his dear wife roll her burden at Jesus' feet.

• • • •

It was at the funeral of a dear man who had lived for God and died in the faith that a man said to a companion, "Just as we get ready to enjoy life we have got to die." [illegible]

• • • •

I thought, "Thank God I enjoy the present life, and am ready for the life to come."

• • • •

They were urging him to leave the S. A. and join ——— as the S. A. could not feed him spiritually as they were ignorant people generally.

• • • •

He replied, "Did you ever hear tell of a man building a foundation in one place and putting the brick on another? Well I believe God has laid the foundation stone of the S. A. and will build the walls upon it." Amen.

• • • •

A soldier met an old chum who offered him a drink on New Year's day. But he declined with thanks, saying God had taken the desire for drink and sin out of his heart, and now he enjoys himself properly.

• • • •

Before she met the S. A. she was very bad with spiritual indigestion and attendant vertigo—she tried to swallow spiritual beef-steak, but it was agony. In a holiness meeting in the S. A. God healed her spiritual disease and gave her a full salvation, and now she enjoys the good things of God.

• • • •

A man in the audience said, "If it is God's will you should be a Christian in the S. A. you can not be one anywhere else." I thought it spoke volumes of truth!

• • • •

I had heard him pray before, but I counted this time, and he actually repeated "O, God" eighteen times during a prayer of about a minute in length. Are you a habitual prayer?

• • • •

He said "I am a hero of Waterloo (street corps,) who had rebelled against God for four-score years, and was brought to God in the S. A."

• • • •

He had been under conviction for fourteen years, and during that time a shadow had followed him day and night, but it was dispelled at the Cross and he is now a happy Salvationist. On New Year's morning he had the joy of seeing his dear wife roll her burden at Jesus' feet.

• • • •

It was at the funeral of a dear man who had lived for God and died in the faith that a man said to a companion, "Just as we get ready to enjoy life we have got to die." [illegible]

• • • •

I thought, "Thank God I enjoy the present life, and am ready for the life to come."

• • • •

He replied, "Did you ever hear tell of a man building a foundation in one place and putting the brick on another? Well I believe God has laid the foundation stone of the S. A. and will build the walls upon it." Amen.

• • • •

A soldier met an old chum who offered him a drink on New Year's day. But he declined with thanks, saying God had taken the desire for drink and sin out of his heart, and now he enjoys himself properly.

• • • •

At the end of the day he was counting thus:—Four and one makes five, and one counts six souls to-day towards the great 20,000 soul boom.

• • • •

The latest on the board was a singing battle. As a result one soul was swept in to the fountain and got rid of his sins. Hallelujah!

• • • •

Banquet brevities—Old and young were there; also the rich and poor, fat and lean, male and female, large and small, hungry and delicate, citizen and rustic, saved and unsaved.

• • • •

The good things were piled around some while some piled them in their pockets. Others ate their fill and pocketed none. Some talked about spiritual matters, while others, ——— perhaps it is best not to say. Everyone appeared good-natured if certain officers did arrive too late to get their tea.

• • • •

The supply of tea was in abundance, but what puzzled most people was who the farewell banquet was for as no one knew well except one soul from sin after the meeting.

• • • •

Of course the bride and groom were there, also the young man of bass drum fame, and best of all the Spirit of God was there and fed our inward appetite on spiritual food.

• • • •

This all happened at ——— Oh, well, the Jow (or) or Wisonna can tell you, but it was all South of the T. H., and the Lord's presence was richly felt with good things which we enjoyed, New Year's (Jubilee)

THE OLD STORY.

BY ERNEST HURCHOUT.

TUNE—I'm saved and happy.

I will tell you of a story,
I heard some time ago;
This story is of Calvary,
Where the Saviour's blood did flow
To save a world of sinners.
The Saviour Christ did come,
Deep dyed or just beginners,
He bids them all come home.

CHORUS.

Oh, glory HaRelujah,
I'm on my journey home.

OR

I'm saved and happy on a Monday,
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday too;
Friday, Saturday, Sunday,
I'm saved the whole week through.

His life on earth was lowly,
And He dwelt amongst the poor,
His heart was pure and holy,
His grief o'er sinners sore.
In doing good His life was spent,
Yet sick ones he made well.
Yes, every hour and moment
To save from sin and hell.

Some say this story's threadbare,
And has no power when told,
But it brings us heavenly welfare,
That's better far than gold.
In beginning has been our prayer,
Its ending has the cross,
It shows the sinner's danger,
And their eternal loss.

When first I heard this story,
I just got saved in time,
Now I'm going up to glory,
On the Hallelujah line.
Although I was a sceptic,
And oft its truth would doubt,
But now I've turned poetic,
And I tell its beauties out.

TO OUR AUXILIARIES.

We see no sufficient reason why every Army friend should not be also an auxiliary. We are sincerely desirous that our League should become union between our soldiers and those who are regular attendants at our meetings. Our present Auxiliaries can do us good service by forwarding to us the names of friends who would like either to join our League or to help us in some of the varied departments of our work.

• • • •

The first aim—nay, the whole motive of our Army work is a spiritual aim and motive. To get Christians fully consecrated to the service of our King must ever be the mainspring of our work among the auxiliary members of the League. Conversions must follow as a legitimate consequence when Christians become sanctified.

• • • •

Active service is ever a speedy result of sanctification. Once the Holy Ghost takes possession of a soul as an earnestly sought, honored guest, He is sure to beget a resistless desire for service. The command is accompanied with the means of its fulfilment. "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God that worketh in you, both to will and to do of His good pleasure."—Phil. ii., 12, 13.

• • • •

"There are many things in the Army of which I disapprove, although I believe it is doing a grand work." "And yet you would thrust aside your own likes and dislikes if you know some obnoxious method had been used of God in the conversion of a soul," was our reply to the above statement.

• • • •

"Oh, yes, yes!" was the eager reply.

"What is it that specially offends your taste?" we asked, half dreading as we spoke lest a useless controversy might be provoked by our question.

The answer dealt with some trivial point in the arrangement of our meetings. Before rising to go, our friend said, with an honest grace, which drew our heart towards her—

"Well, I don't think, after all, that I have any objections to the Army."

• • • •

On looking back we feel quite certain that we could never have freed ourselves from our own old prejudices against Army methods. When we obeyed the call of God and took the post appointed by Him for us, our prejudices vanished, we know not how or where. Is it a good plan when objections are urged against some proposed attack upon the great surrounding kingdom of darkness and unrighteousness to ask oneself calmly: "Is the objector a fully consecrated, a sanctified soul?" If the answer is an honest affirmative, then, by all means, examine his statement with due care. If, on the contrary, the objection has been mooted by an unconverted person, or by one of little spiritual discernment, surely you ought not to allow it to divert your support and influence from the Army.

• • • •

"Can you not be saved without beating a drum?" somebody objected once to a saved convict, who had been attracted by the despised drum into the very meeting where he gave his heart to Jesus.

"Better to beat a drum in the Army than to trundle a wheel-barrow in the prison yard," was our comrade's reply.

"But surely it is unnecessary to wear that uniform?"

"What's the matter with it? It's better than the one I wore for the Government for three years," he answered, with grim humor.

• • • •

Another of our converts inquired of his gentle objector:—"As you are a lady you will not refuse to tell me why you object to the Salvation Army."

"Yes, I will tell you," was the response.

"I want the poor people to come up to my level, I do not want to go down to theirs."

"That's a cold invitation," was the only comment made by the other.

God could doubtless have forced humanity up to Himself. It was not, however, His chosen mode of action. The Christ came down to our level in order to draw us up to God. We wish to go down to the poorest, the lowest, the most abandoned, in order to draw them up, as Jesus Christ drawn us—infinitely to God."

M. S. N.

INFLUENZA!

Sin's Grip! What a scarce, all through this influenza! It has surely "gripped" many, and no doubt it will grip many more. Papers are full of the accounts of its awful ravages. Wherever it appears, the inhabitants take all kinds of precautions to avoid it; but how strange, that amid all this excitement over a disease, which in many cases is really not so bad as represented, millions of people fail to see the terrible and deadly outcome of that disease of all diseases—sin. Certain kinds of medicine may ease influenza, but there is only one remedy for the awful train of evils which have their foundation in that one great malady—sin. Drink, morphine, opium, tobacco, want, are all brought about by sin; but thank God, Jesus, the Great Physician lives. (The Salvation which He died to purchase, is a sure cure for the sinner. Let every officer and soldier sound abroad the fame of the Great Doctor.

• • • •

NEW YEAR'S EVE.

S. F. S.

I look from that mount of the prophet,
Where one stands on a New Year's Eve,
O'er the year that is past and the coming,
With eyes that forget how to grieve.

And my faith grows slight for the Now
Year,
'Neath the rainbows God rears o'er the past,
What strength can we pray for, my comrades,
We have not found Him grant to our
Year!

Through valley, and desert, and hill-land,
We marched in the year that is dead;
Over mountains, through rivers and oceans
We shall pass o'er the year that is fled.

Oh, these valleys! the "valley of vision,"
Where, "discomfited, downtrod, perplexed!"
The walls of our city crashed round us,
And we looked from one breach to the next.

We have gazed through a sunset on Moab,
O'er a green land which laughed in the light,
And have seen it at daybreak, "soul-trembling,"
"Laid waste, brought to naught in a night!"

But the desolate place He replanted,
And the wastes, He has builded anew,
And over the valley of weeping
He poured down His grace with the dew!

The wilderness-way of His making
Is cooled by His own living springs,
And beyond the dark flood of each river
Lies "the place of the rustling of wings."

TWENTY THOUSAND SOULS!

WE SHALL GET THEM.

According to our faith it shall be done.

London Lights.

MAJOR MORRIS.

Not for the Devil.

ALVINSTON.—On Monday night, ONE soul secured pardon and found Jesus. Some who had a good day. We started the day at knee-drill, full of faith. ONE saved in the holiness meeting marched in the afternoon. TWO more saved in the afternoon, making four for the week. Six of these testified to the platform on Sunday night. This is what I like to see. The devil is getting woke up. We are going to make it hot for him. CAPT. G. WIGGINS.

Four Crying for Mercy.

LONDON.—Christmas Day was one of blessing. During the afternoon meeting deep conviction was upon the consciences of the unsaved, but none would yield to the strivings of God's spirit. The night meeting was the crowning time, while FOUR were crying for mercy. A poor drunkard came forward and got gloriously saved, and God has enabled him to live to His glory since. LIEUT. OATES.

ONLY ONE WESTERN REPORT!

MAJOR YOUNG.

What He Told Captain.

MOOSE JAW.—Hallelujah, here we are again. God has been in our midst saving souls. Praise His name. His power was felt. Sinners felt it. One backslider said to me, "Captain, I got sanctified to-night." I tell you his face showed that a change had taken place. God will, by His Spirit, so work in us that sinners shall be led to see and feel their need of salvation. W. A. FOX.

OTTAWA OVERTURES

ADJT. SHARP.

Hatred versus Love.

MORRISBURG.—Yesterday, Sunday, we had prayer meetings all day. We went forth armed with the armour of God to fight against the devil. Bless His dear name, He has helped us to give the devil some good hard knocks. We got the victory and the devil lost one of his soldiers. Our hearts jumped for joy as ONE DEAR MAN came forward, broken down on account of his sins, which he confessed to Christ and He took him in. In his testimony he said that he used to hate the Army and did all he could to upset us, but as God used to have their spokesman in front of his shop he used to listen to them, and at last he went to hear what they had to say at the barracks. He kept going, and he could not stay away. The spirit of God took hold of him, and he thanked God yesterday afternoon that he could say the burden had gone and he was saved. He was on the platform last night, a happy man. We are having victory at our meetings, eight recruits ready to be enrolled. Keep believing. God is working with the people and making them miserable on account of sin. LIEUT. HARDING.

God's Love Conquered.

PERTH.—This morning we do rejoice in the God of our salvation for the wonderful things He has done. We had the joy yesterday of seeing TWO PRODIGALS return to their Father's house. They have long withstood His pleadings and spurned His offered grace, but at last the love of Jesus broken their hard hearts, and subdued their stubborn wills, and brought them to His feet. There are many more in the valley of indecision, and we are believing to see them coming to the Master. CAPT. LAURA HINTON.

The Future!

CORNWALL.—We are marching on in the strength of our God. More than ever we have renewed our covenant with Him. As the old year is now gone and the new year has come we feel determined that we shall live more devoted to God, and be true to our vows. We thank God for the victories in the past, but we are believing for greater in the future. We are going in to win in the strength of our King. Christ shall reign. CAPT. MAY WATSON.

Four Souls Saved.

PEMBROKE.—We have some blood-and-fire soldiers and Methodists here in Pembroke. The devil was made to scuttle, especially when FOUR-SOULS left his ranks last week. Seven recruits were enrolled last Tuesday under this blood-and-fire flag, among them being a man who sold his wife once for $4.00. He's glad he met the Army and Jesus. LIEUT. F. MCKENZIE.

Victory Shall Come.

KEMPTVILLE.—Soldiers are getting better, and sinners and backsliders are getting more miserable. We are praying that God will continue to make them so. Amen. That's right! Continue! let us have more prayer and faith, and it shall bring the victory. Hallelujah! LIEUT. KIDD.

Four Strong Men.

WINCHESTER.—We resolved to do something extraordinary for God on Christmas day, so we marched out at five o'clock in the morning and then met for knee drill. God came very near and blessed us wonderfully. In the afternoon meeting there was no broad, but as night the Spirit of God took hold of the meeting and FOUR STRONG MEN went into way to the Cross. Glory to God! Victory alone satisfies us, and victory we are bound to get! LIEUT. G. W. FORD.

Peterboro' Pointers

D. O. MARSHALL.

Twelve Souls. Hallelujah!

COBOURG.—We want to tell you that we are rolling on down here in Cobourg, and souls are being converted. Since our last report TWELVE have come and found Christ to be all and in all. Soldiers are getting more in fighting trim, and are going in for souls, and we are bound to do our share toward the 30,000 souls. Help us by helping us. Look out for reports. Yours, living for nothing else but souls. DICK MURTOCH.

A High-Old Time.

OAKWOOD.—Thank God, we are still marching on to victory. In spite of the unfavorable weather our meetings are good. Friday, 27th, we had with us D. O. Marshall, Staff-Capt. Griffiths, and the Lindsay brass band, and others too numerous to mention! The afternoon and jubilee was a gigantic success. God was in our midst, but none would yield and give up sinning. So many are in the pickle, and unless they turn they will soon be in hell. Sinner, take warning; death is coming. Where will you spend eternity? CAPT. STOCKTON.

Five Fine Fish.

LINDSAY.—Since last you heard from us God has been working, and as a result the devil has been trying to upset us; but overstepped his mark, however, for on Sunday night while he was trying to upset the meeting at the back of the hall FIVE of his followers got disgusted with him and came over on the Lord's side. They all testified to God's saving power, and we wound up by a march round the barracks and praising God for His goodness. We are believing for a mighty victory. LIEUT. B. NEELY.

Three Prodigals.

PETERBORO'.—It makes our hearts rejoice to see the prodigals return to their Father's house. THREE souls sought the Saviour last week, and we have every reason to believe they found Him. To all appearances they are doing well. To God be all the glory. Prayer is the secret of soul-saving. LIEUT. W. WHITE.

Two Toronto Cheers.

D. O. PHILPOTT.

100 Dollars for Mother.

OSHAWA.—Oshawa to the front again. God is keeping Hallelujah Brigade against sin and the devil, and we continue to have good crowds. Last Sunday the soldiers took hold of God in mighty faith, and the meetings were blessed. On Sunday night three soldiers spoke, who had been confirmed drunkards. One said that although he earned good wages, it all went for drink, except about $100 he gave to his mother in nine years, but now his money is in the bank of his God. At the close of the meeting THREE backsliders came to God. We are praying that they will become real blood-and-fire soldiers. HUFF AND CALDWELL.

Six Beautiful Saved.

TYRONE.—Praise the dear Lord for victory. We commenced Sunday morning in faith, believing for the Lord to save souls. Deep conviction in the meetings all day. At the close of the night meeting ONE backslider returned home again and got beautifully saved. We are believing for greater times help yet. CAPT. E. HAIGH.

SOLDIERS,

if you are expected to do something in the Soul Boom.

Montreal Mince

MAJOR SPOONER.

SHERBROOKE.—

S—stands for souls of which this week we had TWO.

H—stands for heaven, where they will go if they are true;

E—stands for energy, and we are on his track.

B—stands for religion, which draws the devil back.

R—stands for better when cleansed from all your sin.

E—stands for right, which makes brave women and men.

O—stands for onward to that bright and happy clime,

O—stands for obedience, the hallelujah line.

K—stands for kicking the devil here below.

E—stands for evil, which we don't want to know.

Bro. F——, for Capt. L. Daymond.

One Woman Saved.

MONTREAL I.—On Saturday night last when the invitation was given for those who wanted to be saved to come forward, ONE WOMAN rose from her seat and came right out to the penitent form, and the burden was soon rolled from her heart. She went home and told her unsaved husband she had been to the Salvation Army and had given her heart to God and that he must get saved too. Then she got the Bible down and said, "We must have family prayer" (something that was never known before in the house). They prayed, I understand the husband to say, till one o'clock Sunday morning (for he then wanted to serve God too). They came to the holiness meeting in the afternoon, and when the invitation was given the husband volunteered out and got properly saved. Hallelujah! TWO others (backsliders) and a number for holiness was the total for this week. CAPT. ED. KELLY.

How They Spent Christmas.

LA CHUTE.—We had five most blessed meetings. The early one was grand and glorious. The second one, at Brunnashire, we can tell you about afterwards. A sister gave $5 in the collection, and then got saved at the close, and then gave us a turkey. In the afternoon a slipped BACKSLIDER came out and got right with God. At night the MAN'S WIFE fell at Jesus' feet. SIX SOULS in another report. CAPT. W. B. CARDIFF.

Kingston Knots.

A. D. C. VEALE.

Lots of S.A. Friends.

TRENTON.—

Though so long silent keeping,
We are not dead—our sleeping
Our banquet and jubilee and anniversary meetings throughout, were successful. Our friends are not near all dead yet, God bless them!

Since last report we have been encouraged by seeing TWO SOULS saved at the penitent form, one in her seat, and another at home during a visit—making four altogether!

We were singing the other day—

"Christmas with Jesus
Is just the thing for me."

Praise God, it's true! Nothing can satisfy like Jesus. We are just as happy as at Christmas, all the time.

If you want to know who's bound to go in, I tell you it's your comrades on the Trent and Bay. CAPT. WEST.

Twenty-eight Testimonies.

GANANOQUE.—God gave us an Xmas box on Christmas night in the shape of SEVEN SOULS pleading for salvation—all testified to the fact. Five were in the march the next night, out of the seven, while another soul jumped splash into the fountain for pardon. On Saturday night we had a rousing march, a full house, 28 testimonies, and some real songs made a very interesting time. It was good to be there. Sunday, I credit Ringer. At the holiness meeting, two came a perfect surrender to God to follow Him. Afternoon short-sharp-and-to-the-point meeting was a real hallelujah-shouting time. It was good, at night, to see FOUR MORE at Jesus' feet, pleading for mercy. One boy, who got saved on Monday night, brought his mother, with her silvery grey hair, to Jesus' feet. We give to Jesus glory for the two who made a first surrender, and also for the twelve who got saved. Pray for us. CAPT. JOHNNIE GALE.

A Keeping Salvation.

YARKER.—[illegible] one of victory. [illegible] who got saved some time ago, and a people of Yarker were blessed thereby. A man was coming and he, would [illegible] "This is the best Christmas I have had in eighty-six years that ever he was alive! God for a salvation that saves and keeps from all sin! Hallelujah! I'm trusting in giving his testimony yesterday, that by the help of God, whilst he lived he would be faithful to God. Glory to God for a clean sweep! We are [illegible] on in the strength of one who [illegible] battle, and victory is mine through [illegible] my Saviour. CAPT. RATTRAY.

BARRIE BOOMERS

D. O. BODY.

How we Preach Sermons.

THORNBURY.—[illegible] ing right through for Him. We are [illegible] ing well saved down here, and are [illegible] way to the mighty. Believe they [illegible] are I also follow Christ. Although we cannot preach sermons with our mouths [illegible] God we can preach by living a holy life. We are living at Jesus' feet, learning of Him day by day. LIEUT. BOB COMBER.

Joy in Heaven.

STROUD.—You have been [illegible] wondering how we are getting on. We have not been sleeping—neither have we been idle. We have been fighting and sticking at what we have to do for God! Our meetings are getting better. Yesterday they were grand. There was joy in heaven, as FOUR left at the penitent form, seeking for mercy. Jesus heard and set them free. Hallelujah! and if the Lord and fellow God, will be workers for Him. Yours, living to win. CAPT. G. CARAHER.

A Total of Five.

COLDWATER.—Although this place is called Coldwater, we have found some very warm-hearted people in it. Every meeting is getting better. Thank God, we are having victory. Last Friday night a BACKSLIDER came back to the fold, and the (good) Sunday afternoon a slight FOUR more came back to the fold. Bless God, we can give Him all the glory. CAPT. D. BARRETT.

A New Lease Arrived.

HUNTSVILLE.—After a lonely time [illegible] alone, a friend arrived. Of course we welcome him. We have been having grand times. The soldiers are rejoicing, and soldiers are getting more in order. What a good day on Christmas. Much liberty was felt. One backslider got a good hoist on the way to glory in our morning meeting. We had Bro. Johnston, a converted Dane, with us. He gave a short sketch of his life, which was very interesting. God is working on the hearts of the sinners. The people have turned out well for the open-airs this last week. We see a decided improvement; still there is room to move. Our new Manor and upper are properly saved. We love God and each other. Sure of victory. CAPT. T. E. BAKER.

Woodstock Words!

D. O. BAUGH.

They Stood the Test.

PARIS.—Our meeting on Christmas night was real good; God was with us. Sinners are so convicted, but will not yield. Some of the unsaved laid down two of our converts till Christmas to keep saved. Christmas is over and they are both well saved. Jesus keeps them by His power, praise His dear name. They come to all the meetings, march and testify, and they say they are to be true no matter how hard the fighting is. LT. M. BERRY.

Two Prodigals.

ROCKWOOD.—We are still having victory in our souls. The dear Lord has been blessing our souls in a wonderful way the past week. Christmas day, from half past five in the morning until late at night we were trying to get sinners and women to give up sin, cry to God for pardon, and they would be able to praise the Lord. Some seem a good time. We had with us Bro. Scott, of Guelph. Closed the day with TWO PRODIGALS. CAPT. MASSICOTE.

SHALL WE SEE THEM?

20,000 Precious Souls in Six Months.

THIS IS OUR DESIRE

WAR CRY Text:—"He that soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly."

Divisional Competition List!

Again D.O. Bolton Moves!

He Jumps Over D.O.'s Cooper and McIntyre.

*Denotes a Rise. — † Denotes a Fall.

† Training Home Division.

MAJOR MARGETTS.

Richmond St., Capt. Woodgate		420
Dundas, " Howell		400
Lippincott, " Milner		350
Ottawa, Brig. " Grayson		310
Riverside, Brig. " Matthews		300
Lisgar St., " Webb		220
Brantford, Brig. " Hind		210
Yorkville, " Clarke		150
Arthur St., " Cragg		150
Lippincott T.H., " Banks		150
West Toronto, " Hendricks		140
Yorkville T.H., " Taylor		130
Centre St., " Pearson		125
Parkdale, " Hendricks		100
Little York, " Warder		80
		3135

West Nova Scotia District.

D. O. BEATTY.

Windsor, N.S., Capt. Evans		400
Halifax, " Pierce		350
Yarmouth, " Archibald		320
Liverpool, " Hughes		170
Bartsmouth, " McLean		150
Lunenburg, " White		130
Digby, " J. Allen		120
Annapolis, " Wright		110
Halifax II., " McGillivery		110
Westport, " Sim McDonald		100
Hery River, " Snowsley		100
Bridgetown, " H. Armstrong		90
		2170

† Chatham Division.

D. O. BURTON.

Windsor, Capt. Hoag		400
Chatham, " Golden		360
Essex Centre " Waddy		330
Amherstburg, " Cowan		190
Ridgetown, " Moore		110
Kingsville, " Wells		90
Dresden, " Thackery		80
Blenheim, " Mahon		85
Leamington, " Wale		85
Ringgville, " Symons		80
Dutton, " Olo		80
Camden, " Starr		80
Bothwell, " Lenale		80
Thamesville, " Symons		75
Tilbury Centre, " Wiesmen		75
*Wheatley, "		75
		2065

* New Brunswick District.

D. O. MCINTYRE.

Fredericton, Capt. Yorke		270
Woodstock, N.B., " S. Matthews		230
Amherst, " Clipperton		170
Chatham, N.B., " C. McLean		140
Moncton, Capt. Hunter		130
Newcastle, N.B., " Wheeler		125
Bathurst, " Hunter		125
St. Stephens, " Frost		140
St. Andrews " Dyas		100
Campbelltown, " Blackburn		100
Sackville, " A. Smith		100
St. George, " Emmett		90
Sussex, " Shank		90
Northland, " Desbrisay		90
		2010

East Nova Scotia District.

D.O. COOPER.

Charlottetown, Capt. Gardiner		280
New Glasgow, N.S., " Bradshaw		200
Stellarton, " Lanier		200
Springe Hill Mines, " Bent		180
South Sydney " McPherson		180
North Sydney " Wright		150
Cow Bay. Capt. Gordon		130
Truro, " Creighton		130
Westville, " Thomas		120
Parrsboro, " McRae		120
Oxford, " Raynor		110
Shelburne, " Cook		100
Guysboro, " Kimble		80
		1970

Montreal District.

MAJOR SPOONER.

Montreal I. Capt. Kelly		650
Quebec II. " Lindsay		150
Lachute Mills, " Cardiff		150
Montreal II., " Holmside		140
Sherbrooke, " Raymond		130
Richmond, " Payne		120
Bedford, " Goldwin		100
Knowlton, " Rawlings		100
Cowansville " Lieut. Snellgrove		95
Waterloo, " Capt. Graham		75
		1715

* London Division.

MAJOR MORRIS.

London, Capt. McMillan		375
Strathroy, " Andrews		210
Sarnia, " Gage		200
Goderich, " Slote		170
Petrolia, " Temple		145
Bothwell, " Brow		140
Sarnia, " Hilts		100
Clinton, " Kitt		100
Mitchell, " Case		80
Watford, " Hunter		80
*Parkhill, "		75
		1675

Manitoba Division.

MAJOR YOUNG.

Winnipeg. Capt. Frith		500
Portage in Prairie " Lyons		325
Brandon, " Arkell		225
Morden " Acorch		140
Carberry. " Tierney		140
Neepawa, " Coate		100
Yorkton, " Belcher		90
Moose Jaw, " Foy		90
		1500

* Ottawa District.

ADJT. SHARP.

Cornwall. Capt. Watson		220
Morrisburg, " Long		210
Brockville, " Tonkins		150
Perth " Hinton		120
Chesterville " Ellis		120
Winchester, " Omerod		110
Prescott. " Broadbelt		110
Renfrew, " Scott		110
Kemptville, " Marvin		100
Maxville. " Best		90
Cobden, " Massey		85
Almonte, " Parker		85
		1510

Woodstock Division.

D. O. BAUGH.

Guelph, Capt. Maltby		300
Woodstock, " May Smith		270
Ingersoll, " Bach		200
Paris, " Proctor		150
Hobcaygeon, Tilbury, and Lucan each do a move. God bless the officers in charge of these stations. There is nothing shows me more than to see the officers interested in the sale of my old friend, the Cry. Glad to welcome Tilbury Centre into the list. This, together with Wheatley, makes the Chatham Division go away up again. I see that the Cry's interest comes down a bit, because of the decreases at West Toronto and Parkdale. This takes off 35 and leaves the division at 3,135.
Brantford, " Gilmore		100
Galt, " Ellis		100
Paris, " Wright		100
Simcoe, " Ellis		100
Port Dover, " Ellis		100
Port Rowan

Coming Events

THE

COMMISSIONER

Accompanied by STAFF-CAPT. LEIGHTON and ADJT. PLANT, will Visit:

BOWMANVILLE, Monday, January 20
LINDSAY, Wednesday, " 22
OWEN SOUND, Monday, " 27
ORANGEVILLE, Thursday, February 13

LOOK OUT FOR GREAT TIMES!

Training Home Division.

Commissioner Adams, Staff, and Major Margetts.

20,000 SOUL BOOMING!

WILL VISIT:

YORKVILLE, Jan. 26th, Great Salvation Meetings; afternoon and night.
LIPPINCOTT St. H. (Lecture Room), Jan. 21st, meeting of Secretaries and Sergeants at 7.45 p. m.
TEMPLE, Feb. 4th, United Soldiers' Meeting at 7.45 p. m. Riverside, Centre Street, Little York, Yorkville, Eglinton, and Temple Corps unite.
RICHMOND ST., Feb. 7th, United Soldiers' Meeting at 7.45 p.m., of Lippincott, Arthur, and Richmond St. Corps.
RIVERSIDE, Feb. 9th, Great Salvation Meetings; afternoon and night.
LISGAR ST., Feb. 11th, United Soldiers' Meeting at 7.45 p. m., of W. Toronto Junct., Parkdale, and Lisgar Street Corps.

MAJOR MARGETTS

WILL VISIT:

W. TORONTO JUNCT., Jan. 18th, Enrolment.
W. TORONTO JUNCT., Jan. 19th, Salvation Meetings with C. H. T. H.
RICHMOND ST., Jan. 20th, Commissioning of Secretaries, Sergeants, and Bandsmen.
LITTLE YORK, Jan. 21st, Commissioning Secretaries and Enrolment.
RIVERSIDE, Jan. 22nd, Commissioning of Secretaries, Sergeants, and Bandsmen.
YORKVILLE, Jan. 25th, Commissioning of Secretaries and Enrolment.
LIPPINCOTT, Jan. 27th, Commissioning of Secretaries and Sergeants.

Staff-Captain Leighton,

Will visit the following Corps on the Dates Named:

NIAGARA FALLS, Thursday, January 23
ST. CATHARINES, Friday, January 24
HAMILTON I & II, Sat., Sun., " 25, 26
OAKVILLE, Tuesday, " 28

DON'T FORGET THE DATES!

THE MIXED MUSICAL MEDLEY BAND

From Headquarters under the command of STAFF-CAPT. READ, and ADJT. PLANT,

WILL VISIT

RICHMOND HILL,

SATURDAY, JAN'Y 25th, 26th.

Songs, Solos, Unique Marches, Striking Uniforms, Avalanches of Music, Thrilling Facts.

A Mighty Blending of Pure Amusement, Salvation Music, and Desperate Attack against Sin, Drink and the Devil.

SEE DODGERS FOR PARTICULARS.

Staff-Captain Leighton

(The Junior Warrior),

AND

ADJUTANT T. PLANT

(The Musical Wonder),

WILL VISIT

Guelph, Saturday, Sunday, Feb. 8, 9.

Staff-Capt. Leighton will Lead the Meeting on Monday 10th.

Trade Department.

"IT'S A FACT"

You can purchase Coats and Capes at the Following Prices from Headquarters:

OVERCOAT without Cape	9 50
" " "	11 50
" English Nap, without Cape	12 00
OVERCOAT, English Melton, without Cape	14 50
OVERCOAT, English Pilot, without Cape	17 00
OVERCOAT, Best English West Moleskin	19 50

In Field Work, Officers find it irksome carrying an extremely heavy Overcoat, and we are INTRODUCING A LONG MILITARY CAPE with FROM COLLAR (alone), and these are made as follows:

No. 1. Blue Frieze	6 50
No. 2. " Nap	7 50
No. 3. " Melton	8 50
No. 4. Crombie Nap	12 50

N.B.—This Price includes Expressage to all Parts of the Dominion.

VERY IMPORTANT!

Our UNIFORM SUIT consists of Tunic and Pants, with Guernsey or Sheffield Jacket WORN IN PLACE OF A VEST.

The Training of Children

BY THE GENERAL.

Chapters on, Duty of Parents; Possibility of giving Successful Training; Conditions of Successful Training; Godly Parentage; Responsibility of Parents; Dedication; Parental Example; Family Government; Teaching. What is to be Taught; Training; Obedience; Truthfulness; Self-Denial; Humility; Chastisement; Companionships; Amusements and Recreations; Saving the Children; Junior Soldiers, and how to make them; Objections to Junior Soldiers; Dress; Education; Reading; Strong Drink; Tobacco; Industry; Health; Food, etc., etc.

This is without doubt the most practical and comprehensive book ever written on this subject. Worth its weight in Gold. Every house should contain One. Order at Once.

ONLY 75 CENTS.

Beautifully Bound. Send Orders and Cash to T. H. ADAMS, Salvation Temple, Toronto.

"ALL THE WORLD."

A Neatly Bound Monthly record of the Work of the Army in all Lands. It is very interesting, and every Officer, Soldier, and Friend should Subscribe for it.

PRICE $1.20 PER ANNUM,

From Headquarters, or any Officer, 10 Cents Each.

The "WAR CRY."

Full of Interesting and Lively Facts of the War throughout the entire Dominion. Articles by the General, the Commissioner, and other Leading Members of the Army.

ONLY 5 CENTS WEEKLY, $1.75 PER ANNUM.

The "Little Soldier."

Full of Stirring Facts about the War among the Juniors of the Dominion.

ONLY 1 CENT, WEEKLY.

THE CANADIAN HOUSEHOLD TROOPS'

Brass Band

WILL VISIT:

W. TORONTO JUNCT.	Jan.	18, 19
LISGAR STREET	"	20
ARTHUR "	"	21
RICHMOND "	"	22
RIVERSIDE	"	23
EGLINGTON	"	24
YORKVILLE	"	25, 26
CENTRE STREET	"	27
LITTLE YORK	"	28
TEMPLE	"	29

FOR

Great Soul Boom Meetings

SNARE DRUMMER WANTED!

FOR THE Canadian Household Troops' Band.

One who is well saved and a competent player. Apply at once to

COMMISSIONER,
Salvation Temple, Toronto.

GREAT TIMBREL BOOM!

Now is the time to get out your old broken Timbrels and have them repaired. We have reduced the Jingles to two cents per pair. We can also supply good Timbrel Heads for 50 cts. each. You can thus have a good Timbrel at half the original price.

Send in your orders at once.

CHATHAM DIVISION.

Three Days' Blaze at Essex Centre,

January 25th, 26, and 27th.

BANQUET on the 27th. Capt. Golden and other Officers will be Present.

All these Special Meetings will be led by D.O. and Mrs. BOLTON.

The Christmas Number of

"ALL THE WORLD,"

CALLED

"QUICK MARCH,"

With Beautifully Illustrated Covers. It is full of Interesting News from all over the Globe. A lot in Stock. Send your Order right away.

PRICE 10 CENTS EACH.

OFFICERS, NOTE!!

READY AT LAST!

THE NEW DAILY REPORT BOOK.

Every effort has been made to give in this Book, space for a daily record of an Officer's work, in simple form. It has space for information on nearly every question in the Weekly, Spiritual, and Financial Report. Each Book is strongly bound, and will last one year.

PRICE, ONLY $1.00.

Order at Once.

COME HOME!

SPECIAL NOTE.—Lost Relatives inserted in this column FREE OF CHARGE. Owing to the great demand for space, we shall in the future insert any matter twice in succession, if only one side of the paper only, and no statement will be inserted more than two consecutive weeks.

FRED P. HUSSEY. Late of Cross Road, Lower Road, Dereford, Devon, England. If this meets his eye, or any one knowing of his whereabouts, please write Capt. F. Kelly, 22 Alexander St., Montreal, Que. He is very anxious to hear from him. Last address was on the "Lydian Monarch," of Manchester. 11,1,'95.

JOHN M. MCCLELLAN was last heard of from San Francisco. Supposed to have gone to Los Angeles in California. His uncle is dead, and his father is going down to his grave with sorrow. Any news of his whereabouts, please write to McConnell, Kaslasaya P.O., Co. Oxford, P.Q., Canada. 11,1,'95.

GEORGE MILLS who is twenty-eight years of age, left Toronto Junct. in 1893 when last heard from. Anyone knowing his whereabouts, please write to his mother, Mrs. Mills, Port Perry, Ont., Canada. American Cry please copy. 11,1,'95.

Would JOHN DEER who left Great Bank, Newfoundland, about five years ago, please communicate with his young Samuel, who is anxious to hear from him. Address, Grand Bank, Newfoundland. 11,1,'95.

THOMAS FOX when last heard from he was a blacksmith on C.V. R'y., White River Junct., Vt., U.S.A. Your brother, Geo. Fox, Georgetown, Ont. (late of Redbrooke Lane, N. Pankridge, Staffordshire, Eng.) would be glad to hear from you. American Cry please copy. 11,1,'95.

CHARLES BRAMHAM. When last heard of five years ago, he was in Hibbiton, Winnipeg. Left Campbellford, Ont., 8 years ago. Also ALBERT BRAMHAM left home 10 years ago. Last heard of in Montana, Rocky Mountains, 5 or 6 years ago, sons of Wm. Bramham. Please communicate with Capt. Wm. Freer, S.A., St. Stephen, N.B., Canada. 11,1,'95.

RICHARD THWAITES WILLIAMSON is a sailor, living in New York in 1886, last heard from in the Island of Cuba in 1888. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received, by his sister, Harriet Waite, 5 Cromwell Street, West Hartlepool, England, or his uncle, Wm. H. Williamson, St. Andrews, New Brunswick, Canada. American Cry please copy. 11,1,'95.

MARTHA WILLIAMSON who left Liverpool in 1852 for New York, left there for California in 1850 or 1855. Any information concerning her would be thankfully received by her sister Harriet Waite, 5 Cromwell Street, West Hartlepool, England, or her uncle, William H. Williamson, St. Andrews, New Brunswick, Canada. American Cry please copy. 11,1,'95.

WILLIAHAELLA WAY who left Bonavista, Newfoundland about 23 years ago, and has not been heard from since, please send word to her brother George, who is anxious to hear from her. Address, Grand Bank, Newfoundland. 11,1,'95.

BEN TRIPP, whose mother is supposed to be on her death-bed. Her constant prayer is that he will return home before she dies. She is a soldier in the Corps of St. Thomas. Ont. 11,1,'95.

MR. L. SHAW of Kempsey, Macleay River, New South Wales. His father would like to hear of his brother. This brother sailed from Copenhagen to Canada four years ago. Last heard of was working at his trade, painting, in the Dominion. Will anyone knowing of his whereabouts, send either to the Editor of WAR CRY, Temple, Toronto, or to the above address. 11,1,'95.

THE LITTLE SOLDIER.

ONE CENT PER COPY, 1 Copy, 1 year, 52 issues. Packed with Fine Articles, Stories, Poetry, Prayers, Testimonies, Hymns, Addresses and Songs by the Officers and Soldiers. Contains a lot of Information to spread Salvation thus by increasing the circulation of this little paper, and thus enabling the Editor to sustain and intensify the devotion of the Army Soldiers, Officers and Friends, and to carry on a vigorous and energetic attack upon the kingdom of the wicked one, and the extension of the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Friend, Send in 50 S.A. publications, at the Trade Department, 20 Albert Street, Toronto, Ont.

THE WAR CRY

CONTAINS ALL THE LATEST news of the war, with original articles by the General, Mrs. Booth, and Addresses and Songs by the Officers and Soldiers. Contains a lot of information to spread Salvation thus by increasing the circulation of this little paper, and thus enabling the Editor to sustain and intensify the devotion of the Army Soldiers, Officers and Friends, and to carry on a vigorous and energetic attack upon the kingdom of the wicked one, and the extension of the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Friend, Send in 52 S.A. publications, at the Trade Department, 20 Albert Street, Toronto, Ont.